S. Morrison, 2015-06-03 Tracing material and metaphoric waste through the Western canon ranging from Beowulf to Samuel Beckett Susan Signe Morrison disrupts traditional perceptions of waste to better understand how we theorize manage and are implicated in what is discarded and seen as garbage Engaging a wide range of disciplines Morrison addresses how the materiality of waste has been sedimented into a variety of toxic metaphors If scholars can read waste as possessing dynamic agency how might that change the ethics of refuse ing and ostracizing wasted humans A major contribution to the growing field of Waste Studies this comparative and theoretically innovative book confronts the reader with the ethical urgency present in waste literature itself SoulStirrers

H. Ike Okafor-Newsum, 2016-01-19 In SoulStirrers H Ike Okafor Newsum describes the birth and development of an artistic movement in Cincinnati Ohio identified with the Neo Ancestral impulse The Neo Ancestral impulse emerges as an extension of the Harlem Renaissance the Negritude Movement and the Black Arts Movement all of which sought to re represent the primitive and savage Black and African in new terms Central to the dominant racial framework has always been the conception that the Black subject was not only inferior but indeed incapable of producing art The Neo Ancestral impulse posed a challenge to both existing form and content Like its intellectual antecedents the movement did not separate art from life and raised a central question one that the soul stirrers of Cincinnati are engaging in their artistic productions Okafor Newsum defines collapsing of the sacred and the profane as a central tendency of African aesthetics transformed and rearticulated here in the Americas In this volume the artistic productions ask readers to consider the role of those creating and viewing this art by attempting to shift the way in which we view the ordinary The works of these artists therefore are not only about the survival of African derived cultural forms though such remains a central effect of them These extraordinary pieces installations and movements consistently refer to the cultural reality of the Americas and the need for political and intellectual transformation They constitute important intellectual interventions that serve as indispensable elements in the redefinition and reinterpretation of our society Featuring numerous color illustrations and profiles of artists this volume reveals exciting trends in African American art and in the African diaspora more broadly Literature
