The SAGE Encyclopedia of Filipina/x/o American Studies Kevin Leo Yabut Nadal,Allyson Tintiangco-Cubales,E.J.R. David,2022-09-13 Filipino Americans are one of the three largest Asian American groups in the United States and the second largest immigrant population in the country Yet within the field of Asian American Studies Filipino American history and culture have received comparatively less attention than have other ethnic groups Over the past twenty years however Filipino American scholars across various disciplines have published numerous books and research articles as a way of addressing their unique concerns and experiences as an ethnic group The SAGE Encyclopedia of Filipina x o American Studies the first on the topic of Filipino American Studies offers a comprehensive survey of an emerging field focusing on the Filipino diaspora in the United States as well as highlighting issues facing immigrant groups in general It covers a broad range of topics and disciplines including activism and education arts and humanities health history and historical figures immigration psychology regional trends and sociology and social issues Analyzing World Fiction Frederick Luis Aldama,2011-09-01 Why are many readers drawn to stories that texture ethnic experiences and identities other than their own How do authors such as Salman Rushdie and Maxine Hong Kingston or filmmakers in Bollywood or Mexico City produce complex fiction that satisfies audiences worldwide In Analyzing World Fiction fifteen renowned luminaries use tools of narratology and insights from cognitive science and neurobiology to provide answers to these questions and more With essays ranging from James Phelan s Voice Politics and Judgments in Their Eyes Were Watching God and Hilary Dannenberg s Narrating Multiculturalism in British Media Voice and Cultural Identity in Television to Ellen McCracken s exploration of paratextual strategies in Chicana literature this expansive collection turns the tide on approaches to postcolonial and multicultural phenomena that tend to compress author and narrator text and real life Striving to celebrate the art of fiction the voices in this anthology explore the ingredients that make for powerful universally intriguing deeply human story weaving Systematically synthesizing the tools of narrative theory along with findings from the brain sciences to analyze multicultural and postcolonial film literature and television the contributors pioneer new techniques for appreciating all facets of the wonder of storytelling Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Postcolonial Literature and the United States: Race, Ethnicity, and Literature, Probing essays that examine critical issues surrounding the United States's ever expanding international cultural identity in the postcolonial era Download Plain Text version At the beginning of the twenty first century we may be in a transnational moment increasingly aware of the ways in which local and national narratives in literature and elsewhere cannot be conceived apart from a radically new sense of shared human histories and global interdependence To think transnationally about literature history and culture requires a study of the evolution of hybrid identities within nation states and diasporic identities across national boundaries Studies addressing issues of race ethnicity and empire in U S culture have provided some of the most innovative and controversial contributions to recent scholarship Postcolonial Theory and the United States Race Ethnicity and Literature represents a new chapter in the emerging dialogues about the importance of borders on a global scale This book collects nineteen essays written in the 1990s in this emergent field by both well established and up and coming scholars Almost all the essays have been either especially written for this volume or revised for inclusion here These essays are accessible well focused resources for college and university students and their teachers displaying both historical depth and theoretical finesse as they attempt close and lively readings The anthology includes more than one discussion of each literary tradition associated with major racial or ethnic communities. Such a gathering of diverse complementary and often competing viewpoints provides a good introduction to the cultural differences and commonalities that comprise the United States today. The volume opens with two essays by the editors: first a survey of the ideas in the individual pieces and second a long essay that places current debates in U.S. ethnicity and race studies within both the history of American studies as a whole and recent developments in postcolonial theory. Amritjit Singh, a professor of English and African American studies at Rhode Island College, is coeditor of Conversations with Ralph Ellison and Conversations with Ishmael Reed, both from University Press of Mississippi. Peter Schmidt, a professor of English at Swarthmore College, is the author of The Heart of the Story. Eudora Welty's Short Fiction, University Press of Mississippi.
