Ruttapond Swanpitak, 2025-02-17 This book explores representations of female sexuality and subjectivity in contemporary Chinese fiction by three women writers published from 1986 to 2000 from the perspective of poststructuralist feminism It discusses the representative works of authors Wang Anyi Tie Ning and Chi Li who are well known in the Chinese literary field However their works have not to date been analysed through the poststructuralist feminism s notions of subjectivity femininity and transgression This book then provides detailed analysis of each writer and draws comparisons between their works to provide an extended consideration of female sexuality and subjectivity within post Mao Chinese fiction In this respect this book not only offers fresh insights into the three authors fiction but also contributes to the feminist study of Chinese women s writing Additionally the research contributes to a better understanding of contemporary Chinese culture in relation to patriarchy misogyny feminism differences and resistance It is relevant to scholars in the fields of China studies Chinese literature feminist literature and gender studies Chinese Literature and the Child K. Foster, 2013-10-22 Tracking ideas of the child in Chinese society across the twentieth century Kate Foster places fictional children within the story of the nation in a study of tropes and themes which range from images of strength and purity to the murderous and amoral

Translating Chinese Fiction Tan Yesheng, 2024-06-28 Drawing on the cognitive translational paradigm this book introduces a situation embedded cognitive construction model of translation and explores the thinking portfolios of British and American sinologists cum translators to re-examine their multiple voices and cognition in translating Chinese fiction. By placing sinologists cum translators in the same discourse space the study transcends the limitations of previous case studies and offers a comprehensive cognitive panorama of how Chinese novels are rendered. The author explores the challenges and difficulties of translating Chinese fiction from the insider perspectives of British and American sinologists and cross-validates their multiple voices by aligning them with cross-cultural communication scenarios. Based on the cognitive construction model of translation the book provides a systematic review of the translation thoughts and ideas of the community of sinologists in terms of linguistic conventions narrative styles contextual and cultural frames readership categories and metaphorical models of translation. It envisions a new research path to enhance empirical research on translators' cognition in a dynamic translation ecosystem. The title will be an essential read for students and scholars of translation studies and Chinese studies. It will also appeal to translators and researchers interested in cognitive stylistics literary studies and intercultural communication studies.

Belief, History and the Individual in Modern Chinese Literary Culture Artur K. Wardega, 2009-03-26 A value system in constant change a longing for stability amid uncertainties about the future a new consciousness about the unlimited challenges and aspirations in modern life these are themes in modern Chinese literature that attract the attention of overseas readers as well as its domestic audience. They also provide Chinese and foreign literary researchers with complex questions about human life and achievements that search beyond national identities for global interaction and exchange. This volume presents ten outstanding essays by Chinese and European scholars who have undertaken such exchange for the purpose of examining the individual and society in modern Chinese literature.

The Politics of Cultural Capital Julia Lovell, 2006-03-31 In the 1980s China's politicians writers and academics began to raise an increasingly urgent question why had a Chinese writer never won a Nobel Prize for literature. Promoted to the level of official policy issue and national complex Nobel anxiety generated articles conferences and official delegations to Sweden. Exiled writer Gao Xingjian's win in 2000 failed to satisfactorily end the matter and the controversy surrounding the Nobel committee's choice has continued to simmer. Julia Lovell's comprehensive study of China's obsession spans the twentieth century and taps directly into the key themes of modern Chinese culture national identity international status and the relationship between intellectuals and politics. The intellectual preoccupation with the Nobel literature prize expresses tensions inherent in China's move toward a global culture after the collapse of the Confucian world view at the start of the twentieth century and particularly since China's re-entry into the world economy in the post-Mao era. Attitudes toward the prize reveal the same contradictory mix of admiration resentment and anxiety that intellectuals and writers have long felt.

toward Western values as they struggled to shape a modern Chinese identity In short the Nobel complex reveals the pressure points in an intellectual community not entirely sure of itself Making use of extensive original research including interviews with leading contemporary Chinese authors and critics The Politics of Cultural Capital is a comprehensive up to date treatment of an issue that cuts to the heart of modern and contemporary Chinese thought and culture It will be essential reading for scholars of modern Chinese literature and culture globalization post colonialism and comparative and world literature

Mainstream Culture Refocused Xueping

Zhong,2019-01-31 Serialized television drama dianshiju perhaps the most popular and influential cultural form in China over the past three decades offers a wide and penetrating look at the tensions and contradictions of the post revolutionary and pro market period Zhong Xueping s timely new work draws attention to the multiple cultural and historical legacies that coexist and challenge each other within this dominant form of story telling Although scholars tend to focus their attention on elite cultural trends and avant garde movements in literature and film Zhong argues for recognizing the complexity of dianshiju s melodramatic mode and its various subgenres in effect refocusing mainstream Chinese culture Mainstream Culture Refocused opens with an examination of television as a narrative motif in three contemporary Chinese art house films Zhong then turns her attention to dianshiju s most important subgenres Emperor dramas highlight the link between popular culture s obsession with emperors and modern Chinese intellectuals preoccupation with issues of history and tradition and how they relate to modernity In her exploration of the anti corruption subgenre Zhong considers three representative dramas exploring their diverse plots and emphases Youth dramas rich array of representations reveal the numerous social economic cultural and ideological issues surrounding the notion of youth and its changing meanings The chapter on the family marriage subgenre analyzes the ways in which women s emotions are represented in relation to their desire for happiness Song lyrics from music composed for television dramas are considered as popular poetics Their sentiments range between nostalgia and uncertainty mirroring the social contradictions of the reform era The Epilogue returns to the relationship between intellectuals and the production of mainstream cultural meaning in the context of China s post revolutionary social economic and cultural transformation Provocative and insightful Mainstream Culture Refocused will appeal to scholars and students in studies of modern China generally and of contemporary Chinese media and popular culture specifically

Transmedial Landscapes and Modern Chinese Painting Juliane Noth,2023-11-20 Chinese ink painters of the Republican period 1911 1949 creatively engaged with a range of art forms in addition to ink such as oil painting drawing photography and woodblock prints They transformed their medium of choice in innovative ways reinterpreting both its history and its theoretical foundations Juliane Noth offers a new understanding of these compelling experiments in Chinese painting by studying them as transmedial practice at once shaped by and integral to the modern global art world Transmedial Landscapes and Modern Chinese Painting shines a spotlight on the mid 1930s a period of intense productivity in which Chinese artists created an enormous number of artworks and theoretical texts The book focuses on the works of three seminal artists Huang Binhong He Tianjian and Yu Jianhua facilitating fresh insights into this formative stage of their careers and into their collaborations in artworks and publications In a nuanced reading of paintings photographs and literary and theoretical texts Noth shows how artworks and discussions about the future of ink painting were intimately linked to the reshaping of the country through infrastructure development and tourism thus leading to the creation of a uniquely modern Chinese landscape imagery Ah Q Archaeology Paul B. Foster,2006-04-03 Although Lu Xun was a leading intellectual and writer in twentieth century China and his representative character Ah Q hero of The True Story of Ah Q is considered an iconic repository of progressive Chinese thinking about the national character few works examine the major discourses in his thought and writing relative to broader historical and intellectual currents outside the context of his politicization Ah Q Archaeology however concretely situates Lu Xun's critique of national character vis a vis metanarratives of nationalism and modernity through a close examination of his works in their historical context Paul B Foster uses a discursive approach to tie together Lu Xun's major theme of national character critique and its fate in China's tumultuous twentieth century This book is an important and unique contribution to modern Chinese intellectual history and modern Chinese literature Chinese Poetry in Times of Mind, Mayhem and Money Maghiel van Crevel, 2008-10-02 Chinese Poetry in Times of Mind Mayhem and Money is a groundbreaking study covering a range of contemporary authors and issues from Haizi to Yin Lichuan and from poetic rhythm to exile bashing Its rigorous scholarship literary sensitivity and lively style make it eminently fit for classroom use Historical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China Lawrence R. Sullivan, 2007-05-23 When the Chinese Communist Party CCP seized power in October 1949 China was one of the poorest nations in the world In fact it was so weak it had been conquered by Japan a country one tenth its size a decade earlier Now more than fifty years later the People's Republic of China PRC is an emerging economic political and military superpower with the world's fastest growing economy and largest population 1.3 billion in 2005 A member of the United Nations Security Council since the early 1970s and a nuclear power China wields enormous influence in the world community The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China contains more than 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on individual topics spanning China's political economic and social system along with short biographies on important figures_ from politicians to writers and movie directors_ who have shaped Chinese history during the period of Communist rule from 1949 to 2006 Supplementing the entries are a chronology an introduction charts outlining the structure of the Chinese government and a bibliography of works in English making this a superb resource for college and high school students needing a quick reference on contemporary China Queer Literature in the Sinosphere Hongwei Bao, Yahia Zhengtang Ma, 2024-10-17 Queer Literature in the Sinosphere is the most up to date English language study of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer LGBTQ themed literature and culture in the Chinese speaking world From classical homoerotic texts to contemporary boys love fan fiction this book showcases the richness and diversity of queer Chinese literature across the full spectrum of genres styles topics and cultural politics The book features authors and literary works from mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan Singapore and the global Chinese diaspora Featuring chapters by leading scholars from around the world this book rewrites literature history and culture from a queer lens in China and globally The Chinese Cultural Revolution Paul Clark, 2008-03-24 An intriguing study of cultural life during a turbulent and formative decade in contemporary China this book seeks to explode several myths about the Cultural Revolution officially 1966-76 Through national and local examination of the full range of cultural forms film operas dance other stage arts music fine arts literature and even architecture Clark argues against characterizing this decade as one of chaos and destruction Rather he finds that innovation and creativity promotion of participation in cultural production and a vigorous promotion of the modern were all typical of the Cultural Revolution Using a range of previously little used materials Clark forces us to fundamentally reassess our understanding of the Cultural Revolution a period which he sees as the product of innovation in conflict with the effort by political leaders to enforce a top down modernity The Marshes of Mount Liang: Iron ox Nai'an Shi, Guanzhong Luo, John Dent-Young, Alex Dent-Young, 1994
