Grandad's Army Mike Osborne,2021-03-13 In August 1914 on the outbreak of the First World War there was enormous pressure on men to enlist in Kitchener s New Armies supplementing the tiny regular army and Territorial Force This pressure was intense and posters the entreaties of local worthies and an apparently indiscriminate scattering of white feathers all exacerbated masculine sensitivity We are all familiar if only through BBC TV s Dad s Army with the Home Guard of the Second World War Far less is known of their First World War equivalent the Volunteer Training Corps VTC Like their counter parts in WW2 the VTC comprised those who were too old too young too unfit or too indispensable to serve in the regular forces They fought for the right to be armed uniformed and trained to be employed on meaningful duties and at first to exist at all This book explores the origins development and structure of the VTC along with those who belonged to the many supporting medical transport police and youth organisations who kept the home fires burning or in some cases tried to put them out The VTC arose from the need of those men who were forced to stay at home to be seen to be doing their bit They saw the removal of the bulk of both the regular army and the Territorial Force to the Western Front as their opportunity to prepare to resist the expected German invasion of Britain and as a way of countering accusations of shirking or even cowardice
