Farris, 2020-04-21 In this thorough introduction to theological anthropology Joshua Farris offers an evangelical perspective on the topic. Farris walks the reader through some of the most important issues in traditional approaches to anthropology such as sexuality, posthumanism, and the image of God. He addresses fundamental questions like "Who am I and Why do I exist?" He also considers the creaturely and divine nature of humans, the body-soul relationship, and the beatific vision.

Writing the Gospels Catherine Sider Hamilton, Joel Willits, 2019-02-21 In this book prominent biblical scholars engage with Francis Watson's most striking arguments on the creation of the gospels. Their contributions focus in particular on his argument for a fourfold gospel rather than four separate gospels, his argument against Q but for an early sayings collection, and on the larger landscape of Jesus studies, gospel reception, and interpretation. The contributors ask whether and in what ways Watson's reorientation of gospel studies is successful and explore its implications for research. Leading scholars including Jens Schröter, Margaret Mitchell, Richard Bauckham, and many others provide a close critical and creative engagement with Watson's work. More than merely a critical review of Watson's writing, this book carries forward his work with fresh treatments and provides an essential volume for students and scholars seeking to understand the landscape of gospel studies and to explore new

Unnatural States Peter Ian Lomas, 2014-07-31 Unnatural States is a radical critique of international theory in particular of the assumption of state agency that states act in the world in their own right Peter Lomas argues that since the universal states system is inequitable and rigid and not all states are democracies anyway this assumption is unreal and to adopt it means reinforcing an unjust status quo Looking at the concepts of state nation and agency Lomas sees populations struggling to find an agreed model of the state owing to inherited material differences and unsurprisingly among theorists of the nation only controversy and a great confusion of terms Meanwhile the functional incarnations of the state agent are caricatures the mandarin state the lawyer state the landlord state the heir to history state and the patriot state Yet recent developments in international theory constructivism scientific realism postmodernism sacrifice state agency only at the price of an unhelpful abstraction The states system is dysfunctional and obsolete Lomas contends and international theory must be recast with morality as central to inspire and to guide historic change He focuses in his conclusion on prescriptions for change led by four moral concerns human rights weapons of mass destruction relations between rich and poor societies and the environment I begin this book writes Lomas with the commonest commonplace of international theory to expose it as a meaningless clich In the masterly hands of Hobbes it was elaborated into a shock formula for organized society a reading of history as civilization s failure Kant sought to rescue morality from Hobbes and create the structures of modernity but Kant s influence is coming to an end In the Cold War politicians disagreeing over another philosopher almost brought the world to an end Hence the challenges of our time These are primary and profound Philosophers have done much to define the modern world The point of international theory is to change it

Multidimensional Well-Being, Deprivation and Inequality P. K. Pattanaik, Yongsheng Xu, 2024-08-26 This volume explores several aspects of Amartya Sen and Martha Nussbaum s framework for thinking about individual well being Called the functioning and capability approach FCA this framework radically departs from the conventional approach to the concept of individual well being in welfare economics insofar as it identifies an individual s well being as the value attached to the individual s achievements along certain dimensions of life and her freedom to choose a vector of such achievements rather than as the individual s happiness or desire fulfillment The volume consists of two main parts Part I outlines and studies the basic conceptual and analytical framework and its major features in detail Part II of the book is devoted to application of the analytical structure of the FCA to practical problems of measuring well being deprivation and inequality in a society The book concludes with a discussion of the main conclusions of earlier chapters and the role of social scientists and philosophers in the FCA This volume will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners studying multidimensional well being deprivation and inequality
