Fighting Fundamentalism A Spiritual Autobiography:

Fighting Fundamentalism Douglas Bartles-Smith, 2007-01-01 The Baptist Revival Fellowship Phil Hill, 2019-02-15
Extract from Baptist Revival Fellowship We explore the Baptist Revival Fellowship's history from its foundation in 1938. It began as a movement to promote spiritual renewal in the Baptist Union. However, it withdrew from its affiliation in 1972. It draws on denominational records, press reports, some writings of its leaders, and also the fellowship archive. The movement had three phases of development, and a chapter is devoted to each of these. During its early development between 1938 and 1960, the BRF mainly emphasized personal spiritual renewal and prayer for revival. However, in the late fifties, it moved into more fundamentalist territory. Between 1960 and 1966, came the charismatic renewal and the prominence of Reformed theology. This led to renewed impetus and serious engagement with contemporary Baptist debates. The final phase was between 1966 and 1971, when the BRF adopted a policy of secession from the BU. D. Martyn Lloyd Jones had significant influence from the late fifties onwards. The BRF left the BU in reaction to a Christological controversy between 1971 and 1972.

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2007 Memoirs of the Spirit Edwin Scott Gaustad, 2001. A collection of twenty-six chronologically arranged spiritual autobiographies.

Walter Lippmann Mark Thomas Edwards, 2023. Walter Lippmann was arguably the most respected political journalist of last century, one of liberalism's strongest proponents and harshest critics. This biography considers the role of religion in his life, highlighting the constructive power of doubt and how he manufactured himself as the prophet of limitation for an excessive American Century.

Spirituality and Emotional Intelligence Gilmore Crosby, 2021-08-17. This book weaves together spirituality and a systemic version of emotional intelligence that incorporates Kurt Lewin's social science and other sources. Emotional intelligence calls on us to be fully present to the moment. It calls on us to be appreciative of ourselves and our relationships. Likewise, a calm and compassionate presence is almost universally recognized as a spiritual way of being. In other words, the overwhelming majority of the world's spiritual sources call on us to be emotionally intelligent, and that link is explored with unique clarity in this simple yet powerful text. We are all reactive at times. Becoming more objective and less attached allows us to feel our feelings without being a prisoner to acting on them in habitual ways. From a more detached perspective, feelings are neither good nor bad but simply clues as to how we are perceiving our environment, especially our social environment. This is especially important in terms of our relationships at work. Our perceptions about what people intend trigger our emotional reactions. Think about the difference when you perceive critical feedback as a sincere attempt to help or when you perceive it as an attack of some sort. Perception evokes different emotional responses. Objectivity about our own perception is even more important than objectivity about emotion because the former usually precedes the latter. Paradoxically, being detached allows one to appreciate and experience one's emotions more fully. Recognizing emotion as part of your inner guidance system instead of as something dangerous that must be controlled or denied is freeing. The less emotion runs you, the more you can accept feeling what you feel Emotion is a form of physical energy Fighting your own feelings takes energy Allowing the ebb and flow of emotion is essential to physical and emotional health and to accepting ourselves as we are Gandhi's Truths in an Age of Fundamentalism and Nationalism Sathianathan Clarke, Stephen Pickard, 2022 The twenty first century has seen violence thunder back onto the world stage Religious fundamentalism and other economic political and cultural forces are increasingly in the business of carving out strong nation states Religious fundamentalism and illiberal nationalism also work together to generate catalog and circulate a fixed platform of truths that are deeply mistaken and that generate division and violence Against this backdrop and on the heels of several commemorations in 2019 of the 150th anniversary of Mohandes Karamchand Gandhi s birth this edited volume examines and interprets Gandhi s religious and political ideas of truth for our age Embedded in the political currents especially those ranging in India and the United States the authors carefully excavate and creatively employ Gandhi s thought and practice to reimagine a religiously plural and broadly inclusive nationalism rooted in a universal yet many sided vision of religious truth Rather than glorify the Mahatma great soul this book revisits Gandhi s ideas of truth force satyagraha in the face of fake news nonviolence ahimsa in the face of religious extremism and freedom swaraj in the face of strong nationalism Book jacket

D. Stewart, 2015-02-16 Historically the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive In recent years this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber the late leader of the Vineyard Churches to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition Taking into account John Wimber s unique theology of the radical middle which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty first century Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber s view of power evangelism discipleship formation and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today The Congregationalist ,1925

Disfellowshipped Gerald W. King,2011-08-05 Employing studies in population ecology as a framework for understanding the growth of religious movements Disfellowshipped traces the growth of the Pentecostal movement The author explores how the Pentecostal movement developed in relationship to Fundamentalism from its roots in the Holiness movement to the formation of the National Association of Evangelicals Particular attention is given to the various critiques and rebuttals exchanged between Fundamentalists and Pentecostals exploring how these two movements influenced and shaped one another This book shows how despite their mutual antagonism these two movements held far more in common than in contrast This book will be of great importance to all those interested in the history of Fundamentalism and the rise of Pentecostalism North American Churches and the Cold War Paul B. Mojzes,2018-08-23 History textbooks typically list 1945 1990 as the Cold War years but it is clear that tensions from that period are still influencing world politics today While much attention is given to political and social responses to those first nuclear threats none has been given to the reactions of Christian churches North American Churches and the Cold War offers the first systematic reflection on the diverse responses of Canadian and American churches to potential nuclear disaster A mix of scholars and church leaders the contributors analyze the anxieties dilemmas and hopes that Christian churches felt as World War II gave way to the nuclear age As they faced either nuclear annihilation or peaceful reconciliation Christians were forced to take stands on such issues as war communism and their relationship to Christians in Eastern Europe As we continue to navigate the nuclear era this book provides insight into Chris tian responses to future adversities and conflicts CONTRIBUTORS William Alexander Blaikie James Christie Nicholas Denysenko Gary Dorrien Mark Thomas Edwards Peter Eisenstadt Jill K Gill Michael Graziano Barbara Green Raymond Haberski Jr Jeremy Hatfield Gordon L Heath D Oliver Herbel Norman Hjelm Daniel G Hummel Dianne Kirby Leonid Kishkovsky Nadieszda Kizenko John Lindner David Little Joseph Loya Paul Mojzes Andrei V Psarev Bruce Rigdon Walter Sawatsky Axel R Sch fer Todd Scribner Gayle Thrift Steven M Tipton Frederick Trost Lucian Turcescu Charles West James E Will Lois Wilson
