Using Figurative Language Herbert L. Colston, 2015-11-19 Gathers decades of research on figurative language cognition to answer the question Why don't people just say what they mean Figurative Language in Biblical Prose Narrative Andrea Weiss, 2006-03-01 This study applies several linguistic approaches to the book of Samuel in order to investigate the defining features of metaphor and the way metaphor and other forms of figurative language operate in biblical narrative The book begins with an exploration of how to identify and interpret the metaphors in 1 Samuel 25 Next the metaphors in 2 Samuel 16 16 17 14 are compared with other tropes primarily metonymy and simile Then the notion of dead metaphors is challenged while examining the figurative language in 1 Samuel 24 An in depth analysis of the figurative language in these texts results in a better understanding of the mechanics of metaphor and a richer more nuanced reading of these stories their characters and language

Other Sylvia Plath Tracy Brain, 2014-07-22 Despite being widely studied on both undergraduate and postgraduate courses the writing of Sylvia Plath has been relatively neglected in relation to the attention given to her life and what drove her to suicide Tracy Brain aims to remedy this by introducing completely new approaches to Plath's writing taking the studies away from the familiar concentration to reveal that Plath as a writer was concerned with a much wider range of important cultural and political topics Unlike most of the existing literary criticism it shifts the focus away from biographical readings and encompasses the full range of Plath's poetry, prose, journals and letters using a variety of critical methods

Metaphor, Cancer and the End of Life Elena Semino, Zsófia Demjén, Andrew Hardie, Sheila Payne, Paul Rayson, 2017-11-28 This book presents the methodology, findings and implications of a large scale corpus based study of the metaphors used to talk about cancer and the end of life including care at the end of life in the UK It focuses on metaphor as a central linguistic and cognitive tool that is frequently used to talk and think about sensitive and subjective experiences such as illness, emotions, death and dying and that can both help and hinder communication and well being depending on how it is used The book centers on a combination of qualitative analyses and innovative corpus linguistic methods This methodological assemblage was applied to the systematic study of the metaphors used in a 1.5 million word corpus The corpus consists of interviews with and online forum posts written by members of three stakeholder groups namely patients diagnosed with advanced cancer, unpaid carers looking after a relative with a diagnosis of advanced cancer and healthcare professionals The book presents a range of qualitative and quantitative findings that have implications for metaphor theory and analysis, corpus linguistic and computational approaches to metaphor and training and practice in cancer care and hospice, palliative and end of life care
