An Etymological Dictionary of Modern English Ernest Weekley, 1921 The Least Worst Place Karen J. Greenberg, 2010 In January 2002 the first detainees of the War on Terror disembarked in Guantanamo Bay dazed bewildered and more often than not alarmingly thin With little advance notice the military's preparations for this group of predominantly unimportant neo-donors were hastily thrown together but as Karen Greenberg shows a number of capable and honorable Marine officers tried to create a humane and just detention center Greenberg a leading expert on the Bush Administration's policies on terrorism tells the story of the first one hundred days of Guantanamo through a group of career officers who tried and ultimately failed to stymie the Pentagon's desire to implement harsh new policies and bypass the Geneva Conventions The latter ultimately won out replacing transparency with secrecy military protocol with violations of basic operation procedures and humane and legal detainee treatment with harsh interrogation methods and torture patterns of power that would come to dominate the Bush administration's overall strategy From publisher description A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors Samuel Austin Allibone, 1897 A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased Samuel Austin Allibone, 1896 Dear Birmingham Karamat Iqbal, 2013-04-23 The largest Pakistani community in the UK is to be found in Birmingham Muslim pupils are already the majority religious group in the local schools Ever since the days of the Lunar Men Birmingham has been a leader of cities But can it sustain this success without the active involvement of its Pakistani community This extensively researched letter from one of its adopted sons is directed at everyone who cares for the city It catalogues the development of Pakistani Birmingham over the past 60 years It also draws attention to their wholesale exclusion from centres of opportunities and power across the city Is it time for positive action strategies even a new social contract to be put in place For the journey ahead a route map is suggested in the form of Birmingham Principles A Critical Dictionary of English Literature, and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Middle of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone, 1891 Global Healing Karen Laura Thornber, 2020-03-02 Read an interview with Karen Thornber In Global Healing Literature Advocacy Care Karen Laura Thornber analyzes how narratives from diverse communities globally engage with a broad variety of diseases and other serious health conditions and advocate for empathic compassionate and respectful care that facilitates healing and enables wellbeing The three parts of this book discuss writings from Africa the Americas Asia Europe the Middle East and Oceania that implore societies to shatter the devastating social stigmas which prevent billions from accessing effective care to increase the availability of quality person focused healthcare and to prioritize partnerships that facilitate healing and enable wellbeing for both patients and loved ones Thornber's Global Healing remaps the contours of comparative literature world literature the medical humanities and the health humanities Watch a video interview with Thornber by the Mahindra Humanities Center part of

The Technopolitics of Communication in Modern India Pragya Dhital,2024-12-12 This book offers a groundbreaking account of the role of media technologies in Indian nationalism and democracy From the Brexit referendum in 2016 to the phenomenon of Trumpism there has been much speculation about the role played by new media in an apparent return of illiberal politics and primordial identities Dhital argues these developments could best be understood by not taking identity for granted as a static and exclusive form of affiliation She also emphasises how the technical and material are interwoven into human thought and action rather than acting upon them externally She accordingly focuses on the technopolitical means by which groups have been ventriloquised during critical periods in Indian political history across various media from newspapers and magazines to radio broadcasts speeches and online platforms Chapters cover prison writing produced during the emergency of 1975 77 regulation of public speech during the 2014 general election and the Citizenship Amendment Act protests of 2019 20 Through these case studies Dhital works towards an alternative more reflexive basis for popular representation one that does not sacralise the people and assume power in their name
