Engaging Modern Brunei Hannah Ming Yit Ho, David Deterding, 2021-02-26 This book explores issues shaping and defining modern Bruneian identity. It addresses the research gap regarding Brunei studies in terms of the language, literature and culture of Brunei, which with its bilingual education is uniquely positioned at the intersection of the Malay and western worlds. The book analyses the linguistic, literary and cultural modes that provide the backdrop for modern day instantiations of local identity as expressed through printed and online materials, film, art and social practices. It compares Brunei English and Brunei Malay in the context of the literature and culture of Brunei. Readers will find it useful as an essential resource for academic scholars, university students and others interested in the study of Brunei Darussalam's language, literature and culture. It provides critical insights from an insiders perspective into the local identity of the culturally diverse Bruneian society. AS Level English Language and Literature Helen Toner, 2003 This book meets the requirements of the Cambridge International Examinations CIE syllabuses for AS Level English Language Literature in English and Language and Literature in English and is endorsed by CIE for use with these examinations. The book is divided into two main parts to cover both the language and literature elements of the syllabuses. The language section consists of passages for comment and composition. The literature section analyzes skills for the study of poetry and prose and explores structure and form in drama including Shakespeare.
