Our Man in Vienna Richard Timothy Conroy,2000-08-11 The wit and charm that marked Our Man in Belize enlivens

Richard Timothy Conroy's new diplomatic memoir in a posting that couldn't have a more different location. But the wheels of lower level diplomacy it turns out turn at the same rate whatever the setting. Plucked from the cost of Central America and put down in post World War II Vienna land of Der Rosencavalier and whipped cream cakes Conroy still was not mentioned in dispatches or at least not complimentary ones but even a lowly vice consul could do some good in people's lives. Take for example his effort to help a woman flee Vienna after she reported that someone was sneaking into her room and slicing off a bit of her foot each night. Or the unfortunate Austrian whose visa application had been rejected three previous times with no explanation. Conroy discovered that there was a picture of the man in a Red Army sergeant's uniform. Turned out the man had conned a gullible Red Army soldier to lend him the uniform for a snapshot and an equally gullible group of Russian border guards that he was an undercover Red agent posing as what he really was an export import businessman. Nobody before Conroy had bothered to ask for an explanation. In between similar tales of deep diplomatic deed and misdeed the author gives his readers an imitable take on the Vienna of those days. Want to buy a second hand piano. Some inexpensive paintings. How about above all that famous Viennese food and beer. You could have found it there with Conroy as your guide. Failing that his account of those days is just as rewarding and not nearly as fattening.

To tell the life story of Ed Isky Iskenderian is to tell the history of hot rodding in America. Ed was there from the very beginning. Born in 1921 to first generation Armenian immigrants, Ed's first hobby was ham radio but like many young men in the years before World War II his interest turned to automobiles especially hot rods. Ed had natural skills in metal working and machining that were developed in high school. He wanted to further develop those skills so he joined the Air Corps to continue his education and flew with Air Transport Command. By the time Ed mustered out of the service the California hot rod scene was in full bloom with tens of thousands of vets who had the desire to make cars go fast. Isky Ed Iskenderian and the History of Hot Rodding tells the whole story from his pre war Lake Muroc and car club activities his service in the military starting a small business fabricating parts and making cams in the back of a rented shop and then selling cams to other rodders. It covers how he grew a business from a single cam grinder and became the leading cam authority in barely 10 years. Ed was a gifted machinist and he also had a natural knack for promotion. He purchased an ad in the second issue of Hot Rod magazine sensing something big his instincts as always were right. He was also the first to use T shirts and uniforms as promotion. Not only was he an early pioneer in the industry for print advertising and catalogs he was also among the first to understand the value of having successful race cars using his cams in their engines and wearing his decals on their fenders. The biggest names in the racing industry were running Isky cams and Ed made sure the world knew it. Ed's company name went on to become one of the household names in the performance community. His continued success is an entertaining tale of mingling with industry icons insight into the business of hot rodding great stories of yesterday and today and a life very well lived.
