R.B., a 36-year-old col-professor, is informed by his physician that he has contracted a sexually transmitted disease. The patient is certain that he contracted this during a single sexual encounter while away at a conference. He asks that the physician not inform his wife because it would "destroy their marriage." R.B. asks whether his wife, who is also the physician's patient, can be treated without her knowledge.
