Muhammad Iqbal Javed Majeed,2020-11-29 Bringing together Islamic studies a postcolonial literary perspective and a focus on the interaction between aesthetics and politics this book analyses Iqbal's Islamism through his poetry It argues that his notion of an Islamist selfhood was expressed in his verse through the interplay between poetic tradition and creative innovation It also considers how Iqbal expressed an Islamist geopolitical imagination in his work and examines his exploration of the relationship between the modern West and a reconstructed Islam For the first time Iqbal's personal letters have been drawn upon to provide an insight into his inner conflicts as articulated in his poetry Concentrating on the complexity of his work in its own right the book eschews the standard appropriation of Iqbal into any one political agenda be it Indian nationalism Muslim separatism or Iranian Islamic republicanism With its analytical and in depth reading of Iqbal's verse and prose this book opens a fresh perspective on Islam and postcolonialism It will be a fascinating study for general readers and readers with interests in the intellectual and political history of modern South Asia colonialism and postcolonialism Islamic studies and modern South Asian literature especially Urdu and Persian poetry Hafiz and the Religion of Love in Classical Persian Poetry Leonard Lewisohn,2010-06-02 The romantic lyricism of the great Persian poet Hafiz 1315-1390 continues to be admired around the world Recent exploration of that lyricism by Iranian scholars has revealed that in addition to his masterful use of poetic devices Hafiz's verse is deeply steeped in the philosophy and symbolism of Persian love mysticism This innovative volume discusses the aesthetic theories and mystical philosophy of the classical Persian love lyric ghazal as particularly exemplified by Hafiz who along with Rumi and Sa'di is Persia's most celebrated poet For the first time in western literature Hafiz s rhetoric of romance is situated within the broader context of what scholars refer to as Love Theory in Arabic and Persian poetry in particular and Islamic literature more generally Contributors from both the West and Iran conduct a major investigation of the love lyrics of Hafiz and of what they signified to that high culture and civilization which was devoted to the School of Love in medieval Persia The volume will have strong appeal to scholars of the Middle East medieval Islamic literature and the history and culture of Iran
