

Trinity College

FROM BROAD STREET

THE College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity" was founded in 1554 by Sir Thomas Pope, on the site of Durham College, founded in the 13th century by the monks of Durham, and suppressed at the Dissolution. The entrance is between the stone piers and handsome ironwork of the gates, and the quaint old cottages, now transformed into a porter's lodge. The lawn of the first quadrangle is diversified by orchard trees, whose blossoming in early summer lends it a special charm. The Chapel, facing on, was completed in 1604 by Dr. Becheam, then President; it is in the classic style, and contains some exquisite wood-carving by Grinling Gibbons. In the autumn the crimson of the creepers which cover the south front contrast vividly with the verdure of the lawn. On the north and east sides of the quadrangle are some new buildings. The Gardens are famous for the delightful avenue known as the Lime Walk.
