Girard sought to explain how the Judeo Christian narrative exposes a founding murder at the origin of human civilization and demystifies the bloody sacrifices of archaic religions Meanwhile his book Sacrifice a reading of conflict and sacrificial resolution in the Vedic Brahmanas suggests that mimetic theory's insights also resonate with several non Western religious and spiritual traditions This volume collects engagements with Girard by scholars of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism and situates them within contemporary theology philosophy and religious studies Selfhood and Sacrifice

The Difference Nothing Makes Brian D. Robinette, 2023-02-15 This book explores the doctrinal social and spiritual significance of a central yet insufficiently understood tenet in Christian theology creation from nothing In this original study Brian D. Robinette offers an extended meditation on the idea of creation out of nothing as it applies not only to the problem of God but also to questions of Christology soteriology and ecology His basic argument is that creatio ex nihilo is not a speculative doctrine referring to cosmic origins but rather a foundational insight into the very nature of the God-world relation one whose implications extend throughout the full spectrum of Christian imagination and practice In this sense it serves a grammatical role it gives orientation and scope to all Christian speech about the God-world relation In part 1 Robinette takes up several objections to creatio ex nihilo and defends the doctrine as providing crucial insights into the gifted character of creation Chapter 2 underscores the contemplative dimensions of a theological inquiry that proceeds by way of unknowing Part 2 draws from the field of mimetic theory in order to explore the creative and destructive potential of human desire Part 3 draws upon the Christian contemplative tradition to show how the dark night of faith is a spiritually patient and discerning way to engage the sense of divine absence that many experience in our post-religious post-secular age The final chapter highlights creatio ex nihilo as an expression of divine love God's love for finitude for manifestation for relationship Throughout Robinette engages with biblical patristic and contemporary theological and philosophical sources including among others Ren Girard Karl Rahner and Sergius Bulgakov

Religion and Violence Dominic Arcamone, 2016-02-25 The aim of Religion and Violence is to engage dialectically key symbols of religiously motivated violence through the insights of Bernard Lonergan Sociologists and psychologists argue the link between religion and violence but religion is viewed more as part of the problem and not part of the solution to violence Bernard Lonergan's insights have helped the author arrive at a number of conclusions regarding the link between religion and violence He argues that there is a difference between distorted religion and genuine religion between authenticity and inauthenticity of the subject Distorted religion has the capacity to shape traditions in ways that justify violence while genuine religion heals persons helps them make different moral decisions when confronted with situations of conflict and aims to explore new ways of understanding themselves as shaping history toward progress
