PLOTINUS, Ennead III.4: On Our Allotted Guardian Spirit Wiebk-Marie Stock,2020-11-03 On Our Allotted Guardian Spirit is a lively and at times perplexing text combining general reflections on the nature of the soul with a discussion of the phenomenon of a personal guardian spirit Plotinus wants to interpret Plato and aims to integrate Plato s various statements about daimones into one comprehensive theory This leads to some views that are if not exotic then at least strange on first encounter However a closer reading reveals that Plotinus is not interested in demonology per se Instead the central concern of the treatise are ideas about the soul the self and self consciousness Plotinus explorations produce a theory of the mind as the agent and activity responsible for a person s ethical choices and conduct of life The demon emerges as a philosophical tool passed down from Plato but adapted and rationalized to try to explain motivation to action the impulse toward the ethical life and even the various differences in human ethical and psychological constitution This innovative theory is a response to a strong and ongoing current of thought in the philosophical tradition The introduction offers an overview of ancient demonologies starting with Homer and the Presocratics and is followed by an in depth examination of Plato the Stoics Plotinus and later Neoplatonic developments As such the book presents Plotinus specific rationalizing response to the idea of a guardian spirit in the context of ancient philosophical demonologies

A Tri-Dimensional Model of Mental Health Stephen J. Costello,2022-09-06 This work is an ambitious original and searching study as to what constitutes and comprises mental health It advances the proposition that existential or holistic health depends on integral wholeness the synthesis of body mind and heart As such a tri dimensional model is proposed based on the triadic self rooted in philosophical perspectives on the subject arguing throughout that the human person is a unity in diversity that one is always whole and well in one s Self essence which must be distinguished from the ego personality The importance and relevance of the Enneagram as a foundational system for understanding human personality is referenced throughout The various strands and thought threads in the book coalesce around the central doctrine of nonduality exemplified by mystical Christianity and the philosophia perennis

Redeeming Words and the Promise of Happiness David Kleinberg-Levin,2012-08-31 This book boldly crosses traditional academic boundaries offering an original philosophically informed argument about the nature of language reading and interpreting the poetry of Wallace Stevens and the novels of Vladimir Nabokov Redeeming Words and the Promise of Happiness is a work both in literary criticism and in philosophy The approach is strongly influenced by Walter Benjamin's philosophy of language and Theodor Adorno's aesthetic theory but the other philosophers notably Plato Kant Hegel Emerson Nietzsche Heidegger and Wittgenstein figure significantly in the reading and interpretation Kleinberg Levin argues that despite its damaged corrupted condition language is in its very existence the bearer of a utopian or messianic promise of happiness Moreover he argues by reconciling sensuous sense and intelligible sense showing the sheer power of words to create fictional worlds and deconstruct what they have just created and redeeming the revelatory power of words the power to turn the familiar into something astonishing strange or perplexing the two writers in this study sustain our hope for a world of reconciled antagonisms and contradictions evoking in the way they freely play with the sounds and meanings of words some intimations of a new world but our world here this very world not some heavenly world in which the promise of happiness might be redeemed Reflecting on the poetry of Stevens Kleinberg Levin argues that the poet defies the correspondence theory of truth so that words may be faithful to truth as transformative and revelatory He also argues that in the pleasure we get from the sensuous play of words there is an anticipation of the promise of happiness that challenges the theological doctrine of an otherworldly happiness And in reading Nabokov Kleinberg Levin shows how that writer inherits Mallarmé's conception of literature causing with his word plays the sudden reduction of the fictional world he has just created to its necessary conditions of materiality The novel is revealed as a work of fiction we see its conditions of possibility created and destroyed before our very eyes But the pleasure in seeing words doing this and the pleasure in their sensuous materiality are intimations of the promise of happiness that language bears Using a Kantian definition of modernism according to which a work is modernist if it reveals and questions inherited assumptions about its necessary conditions of possibility these studies show how and why both Stevens and Nabokov are exemplars of literary modernism
