Dynamic Acting through Active Analysis Sharon Marie Carnicke, 2022-12-15 In the 21st century actors face radical changes in plays and performance styles as they move from stage to screen and grapple with new technologies that present their art to ever expanding audiences Active Analysis offers the flexibility of mind body and spirit now urgently needed in acting Dynamic Acting through Active Analysis brings to light this timely legacy born during the worst era of Soviet repression and hidden for decades from public view Part I unfolds like a mystery novel through letters memoirs and transcripts of Konstantin Stanislavsky's last classes Far from the authoritarian director of his youth he reveals himself as a generous mentor who empowers actors with a brand new collaborative approach to rehearsals His assistant Maria Knebel first bears witness to his forward looking ideas and then builds the bridge to new plays in new styles through her directing and influential teaching Part II follows a 21st century company of diverse actors as they experience the joy of applying Active Analysis to their own creative and professional work

In Search of Stanislavsky's Creative State on the Stage Gabriela Curpan, 2021-04-12 This book rediscovers a spiritual way of preparing the actor towards experiencing that ineffable artistic creativity defined by Konstantin Stanislavski as the creative state Filtered through the lens of his unaddressed Christian Orthodox background as well as his yogic or Hindu interest the practical work followed the odyssey of the artist from being oneself towards becoming the character being structured in three major horizontal stages and developed on another three vertical interconnected levels Throughout the book Gabriela Curpan aims to question both the cartesian approach to acting and the realist psychological line generally viewed as the only features of Stanislavski's work This book will be of great interest to theatre and performance academics as well as practitioners in the fields of acting and directing
