West Coast Mission Ross A. Lockhart, 2024-10-15 Vancouver British Columbia now reports no religion as its leading religious identity putting it in the vanguard of a trend happening across North America What does this mean for the Christian communities that continue to worship work and witness in this mostly secular city West Coast Mission seeks to uncover where Christianity in Vancouver is headed now that it is a minority belief system in the broader culture Drawing on a five year study of fourteen sites including church plants congregations and para church agencies Ross Lockhart describes how Christians in Vancouver are organizing their communities shaping their beliefs and expressing themselves in mission He finds that rather than simply declining Christianity in the city is adapting in response to immigration decolonization pluralism and social crises Christians are focusing on friendship and social connection in a culture that identifies as spiritual not religious on affordable housing as a missional concern on the communal value of environmental stewardship and on sharing the gospel in light of the destructive legacies of colonialism and residential schools West Coast Mission explores the evolving spectrum of religious identity in Vancouver and the significant cultural shifts taking place in how Christian mission and witness are approached in a secular city

Parenting Beyond Belief- Abridged Ebook Edition , 2011-02-15 Foreword by Michael Shermer Ph D Contributors include Penn Jillette Julia Sweeney and Dr Donald B Ardell This is an abridged edition of the print classic It does not include essays by Richard Dawkins or

Stephen Law Please consult the print edition for these essays It s hard enough to live a secular life in a religious world And bringing up children without religious influence can be even more daunting Despite the difficulties a large and growing number of parents are choosing to raise their kids without religion In Parenting Beyond Belief Dale McGowan celebrates the freedom that comes with raising kids without formal indoctrination and advises parents on the most effective way to raise freethinking children With advice from educators doctors psychologists and philosophers as well as wisdom from everyday parents the book offers tips and insights on a variety of topics from mixed marriages to coping with death and loss and from morality and ethics to dealing with holidays Sensitive and timely Parenting Beyond Belief features reflections from such freethinkers as Mark Twain Bertrand Russell and wellness guru Dr Don Ardell that will empower every parent to raise both caring and independent children without constraints

Appropriation as Practice of

Memory Dimiter Daphinoff, Franziska Metzger, 2024-11-18 This volume explores how narratives and iconographic codes in literature art music material culture and social political and economic discourses were appropriated and thereby sometimes radically transformed by religious agents and how religious narrations discourses and iconographic practices were reimagined and used up to radical deconstruction in non religious contexts as well as in different or transformed religious contexts Religious appropriation is thereby conceived as practice of memory drawing on reused and creating transformed narrative and visual spaces of imagination The dimension of memory will contribute to a more differentiated typology of practices of appropriation their forms functions and functionalisation Agency and power relations will be important factors in the individual contributions of this trans disciplinary volume that links approaches from memory studies religious history literary studies and art history Nanotechnology, the Brain, and the Future Sean A. Hays, Jason Scott Robert, Clark A. Miller, Ira Bennett, 2012-08-13 Our brain is the source of everything that makes us human language creativity rationality emotion communication culture politics The neurosciences have given us in recent decades fundamental new insights into how the brain works and what that means for how we see ourselves as individuals and as communities Now with the help of new advances in nanotechnology brain science proposes to go further to study its molecular foundations to repair brain functions to create mind machine interfaces and to enhance human mental capacities in radical ways This book explores the convergence of these two revolutionary scientific fields and the implications of this convergence for the future of human societies In the process the book offers a significant new approach to technology assessment one which operates in real time alongside the innovation process to inform the ways in which new fields of science and technology emerge in get shaped by and help shape human societies Engaging Post-Christian Culture Norton Herbst, Gabe Lyons, 2010 Join popular cultural and faith leaders in these five session DVD studies that will challenge your innermost beliefs and preconceived ideas about life faith the world and cultural responsibility Linguistic Communities and Migratory Processes Karen P. Corrigan, 2020-09-07 This inter disciplinary book is the first in an Irish context to address issues connected with the super diversifying of language and society engendered by recent and historical migrations It analyses novel data from interviews with allochthonous and autochthonous groups of monolingual and plurilingual youngsters living in Northern Ireland A key aim is to test models within second language acquisition and language variation and change research Another goal is to examine the extent to which distinctive migratory trends generated changes in the language ecologies of communities on the island of Ireland as well as globally in regions where the Irish settled intensively from the 1700s The book also compares contemporary migratory experiences with historical records to further our understanding of the dynamics of identification through language across time The first ever book devoted to all aspects of the sociolinguistics of globalization and migration in Northern Ireland will be welcomed by scholars interested in the consequences for ethnolinguistic vitality of large scale population movements It could not be more timely given the fact that 2 5 million sought asylum in Europe alone during 2016

greatly enhancing its diversity PAIS International in Print Catherine Korvin,2003-05 This book contains bibliographic references with abstracts and subject headings to public and social policy literature and to world politics published in print and electronic formats international focus Where Faith and Culture Meet Participant's Guide Andy Crouch,2009-08-30 Take Your Group to a Place Where they can see people's needs in a new way Where they can understand their calling Where they will learn how their faith can shape culture This six session DVD and corresponding curriculum helps your group experience and envision how followers of Christ can be a counterculture for the common good Together you'll experience stories of other believers who changed the culture around them including Andy Crouch Mako Fujimara Rudy Carrasco Mark Buchanan Tal James Frederica Mathewes Green and others You'll watch how their journeys unfolded their challenges and their breakthroughs Also included on the DVD are insights from trusted pastors and Christian leaders such as Tim Keller Lauren Winner James Meeks Brenda Salter McNeil and Ken Fong Emerging Culture Participant's Guide Jimmy Long,2010-05-28 Our culture is in transition Some say it is moving from a modern to a postmodern paradigm And this emerging culture won't just blow over In order to be effective witnesses and leaders we need to understand this cultural paradigm shift and proactively plan how we will respond This guide is designed by Jimmy Long to help you to explore analyze and define what is occurring all around us But more than that it will help you shape your ministry for the rest of the twenty first century The participant's guide includes an introduction to the Emerging Culture curriculum Scripture passages with study helps interactive exercises questions to enhance discussion guidance for responding to postmodern people Here is everything you need for you to understand our new cultural environment and to move ahead powerfully in ministry

Engage Your World Engage 360 Ministries,Matt Schmidt,2020-09-27 Exiles on Mission Paul S.

Williams,2020-03-17 Many Christians in the West sense that traditional Christian teaching is losing traction in the public square What does faithful Christian witness look like in a post Christian culture Paul Williams the CEO of one of the world's largest and oldest Bible societies interprets the dissonance Christians often experience while trying to live out their faith in the 21st century He provides constructive tools to help readers understand culture in myriad contexts and offer a missional response Williams calls for a truly missional understanding of post Christendom Christianity whereby local churches are reimagined as embassies of the kingdom of God and Christians serve as ambassadors in all spheres of life and work This book invites readers to embrace the language of exile and imagine a hopeful mission of the scattered and gathered church in the post Christian West It shows a clear pathway for fruitful missional engagement for the whole people of God helping Christians make sense of the world in which they live more authentically integrate faith with everyday life and orient all of their efforts within God's missional purpose for the world Staying Grounded in a Shifting World Gabe
