Kozminska, 2023-12-14 In a world dominated by the visual this book presents how a focus on the sounded experience and acts of listening may carve a way to reformulate emerging publics create space for critical multilingual engagement and deepen recognition of emancipatory practices Examining the emerging logics and rhythms among a group of post EU accession UK Polish migrants this book focuses on the semiotic processes through which contemporary moving bodies and communities place themselves in sociolinguistic landscapes It considers how they develop metrics to account for sociolinguistic change and authenticate their projects and practices in transnational timespace In doing so the book brings power differentials to the centre of language and objectivity debates and foregrounds material semiotics as an approach that enables a new collective potential and redefinition of sociolinguistic listening By connecting research on scale in migration contexts with studies of embodied soundwork and of stance in semiotics this book highlights how a focus on the sounded sign may bring us closer to the ways in which bodies and meanings are re made and collective doing and thinking are formed in the globalised
