Kopf,2016-09-04 The is one question that is the only question that you ll ever need to now in order to have the most successful life you could ever have and that is What is my Divine Purpose No just to know your purpose but to know your Divine Purpose will help you to stop walking into walls and doors that won t open and start walking down pathways that actually lead to somewhere because you were meant to be there I ve spent a lifetime of both failures and successes I ve ad things seemingly magically happen in my favor and I ve experienced when things when against my favor with no hope whatsoever of any other outcome I found the answer to al of my worldly experiences resolved in the spiritual realm when I stopped trying to manage this world from within this world and started to ascend above it by joining in a partnership with the One Universal Mind to resolve these issues Before you go making judgments about how I came to my current understandings realize hat your pre judgments are the source of your problems today because they come from a place of ego they aren t free they are captive in the programmed outline your ego has you unconsciously living within The fact that you are holding this book in your hands right now says to me that you are awakening and that you no longer want to live your life robotically based on the pre programming that the collective ego society has handing you from birth and that you know somehow in your heart in your soul that there is a greater purpose a more meaningful understanding of all this that is going on and you are ready to be enlightened now When the student is ready the teacher appears and adversely when the teacher is ready the student appears They are synonymous with one another one cannot perform its half without the others involvement Although I ve received incredible benefits from writing this book in and of itself I wouldn t or couldn t have done it without you in mind My teachers have told me the same and you will be telling your students that same as you continue to grow spiritually The time is now the universe is opening at an ever increasing rate and our spirits are moving to the surface for the great healing process hat is going on Those that are feeling this are in pain internal anguish a soul suffering collectively is happening of people just like you and me having a burning desire to connect with their inner source of spiritual awareness their Creator within to relinquish the demons and set their souls free Nw is your time don t recoil from the path in front of you now either through this book or any other teacher I implore you now to awaken listen to your inner spirit telling you to heal today and live in love as the new power flows through you you will be healed Your Soul's Gift Robert
