Cheap Bastard's™ Guide to Washington, D.C. Rob Grader, 2009-11-24 Living big for less in America's capital Living big in America's capital takes just the sort of big bucks that fewer and fewer folks have at their disposal these days right Think again Washington D C is full of free and ridiculously cheap stuff one just needs to know where to look Leave it to The Cheap Bastard to uncover all the ins and outs and exclusive bargains to be had and to set forth the real deal with wit and humor The Cheap Bastard's Guide to Washington D C contains hundreds of ideas for living on the cheap without sacrificing necessities or luxuries It shows How to gain free entrance to plays films concerts and museums Where to find free classes in anything from yoga to sailing Where to find half price meals and free filling scrumptious food How to get a free haircut color treatment manicure or low cost massage When and where to find great furnishings in other people's trash With The Cheap Bastard's Guide to Washington D C anyone from students and recent graduates to frugal businesspeople not to mention the capital's millions of recession weary annual visitors can enjoy the good life for less Let's Go Washington, D.C. 13th Edition Let's Go Inc., 2003-12 The Resource for the Independent Traveler For over forty years Let's Go Travel Guides have brought budget savvy travelers closer to the world and its diverse cultures by providing the most up to date information Includes Entries at all price levels for lodging food attractions and more Must have tips for planning your trip getting around and staying safe The best bars clubs scenes and events In depth cultural information that offers an insider's look at life in the city Opportunities to make a difference through study work and volunteering Detailed neighborhood maps walking tours and photos throughout Featuring not to be missed Experiences Cultural Connections Play chess with the locals at Dupont Circle Inside Scoops Hidden Deals Applaud a free performance at the Kennedy Center Off the Beaten Path Cavort with the wild ponies of Chincoteague Virginia Get advice read up and book tickets at www.letsgo.com Craigslist Confessional Helena Dea Bala, 2020-07-07 Touching The New York Times For fans of Humans of New York and PostSecret a collection of raw urgent and heartfelt stories shared anonymously Helena Dea Bala was an exhausted and isolated DC lobbyist suffocating under the weight of her student loan debt when she decided to split her lunch with a man who often panhandled near her office They chatted effortlessly as they ate there were no half truths or white lies and no fear of judgment Helena felt connected and unburdened in a way she hadn't in years Inspired she posted an ad on Craigslist promising to listen anonymously and for free to whatever the speaker felt he or she couldn't tell anyone else Emails from people desperate to connect flooded her inbox and she listened Within months Helena quit her job deferred her loans and dove into listening full time The forty first person confessions in this book are vivid intimate and real they range from devastating traumas to lost loves to reflections on hard choices Some accounts are quotidian like that of one increasingly estranged husband I want to feel that we're not just roommates that we're not just waiting for the kids to grow up so that we can move on Others are deeply disconcerting like that of a sex addict employed by a religious organization and several are heartening like that of a mother who dares to hope that her daughter born with life threatening heart defects will one day walk down the aisle

Sometimes you need to have the audacity to believe that it will all be okay that it is okay to have the same kinds of dreams as everyone else In its complex portrayal of the common human experience Craigslist Confessional challenges us to explore the depths of our vulnerability and expand the borders of our empathy

Digital Technologies of the Self Yasmine Abbas, Fred Dervin, 2009-10-02. Inspired by the technologies of the self theorized by Michel Foucault in the early 1980s, this volume investigates how contemporary individuals fashion their identity/identities using digital technologies such as ambient intelligent devices, social networking platforms, and online communities: Facebook, CouchSurfing, and Craigslist; online gaming: SilkRoad; Online Oblivion; and World of Warcraft; podcasts, etc. With high-speed internet access, ubiquitous computing, and generous storage capacity, the opportunities for staging and transforming the self/selves have become nearly limitless. This book explores how technologies contribute to the expression, co-construction, and enactment of identities. It examines these issues from various perspectives as it brings together insights from different disciplines: design, discourse analysis, philosophy, and sociology.

Understanding Social Engineering Based Scams Markus Jakobsson, 2016-09-13. This book describes trends in email scams and offers tools and techniques to identify such trends. It also describes automated countermeasures based on an understanding of the type of persuasive methods used by scammers. It reviews both consumer-facing scams and enterprise scams, describing in depth case studies relating to Craigslist scams and Business Email Compromise Scams. This book provides a good starting point for practitioners, decision makers, and researchers in that it includes alternatives and complementary tools to the currently deployed email security tools, with a focus on understanding the metrics of scams. Both professionals working in security and advanced-level students interested in privacy or applications of computer science will find this book a useful reference.
