Country Music Arelo Sederberg, 2006-12 Country Music consists of 24 stories three of them novelette length depicting rural life in America during the Great Depression and Army life during the Korean War of the 1950s The stories are linked through setting and characters to produce the effect of two episodic novels one concerning the basic training combat experience and readjustment to civilian life of a group of Army draftees the other a dissection of small townism during the stressful 1930s Many of the stories are written in a colloquial and dialectal style from the viewpoint of the characters

Filmonomics André de Palma, Luc Leruth, 2025-04-08 What could movies as diverse as The Last Samurai Cl o from 5 to 7 or Dr Strangelove have in common Filmonomics has a simple yet intriguing answer economics as the main driving force of the plot or as the main motivation of the characters actions This book analyses how movie makers use economic and financial motives in their plots or to build their characters Have they done it in line with economic theory Or are they proposing a new angle a new perspective that economists should take note of The authors here do not discuss wages in the film industry or the economics of movies What interests them is the economic motivations underpinning the behaviour of fictional characters in their favourite films They argue that credible movie characters can behave in irrational ways and movie makers occasionally introduce new ideas that economists should take note of A unique contribution this book will be of interest to readers eager to discover what economists have to say about films and film directors It will be indispensable for students and researchers of economics media studies film studies and cultural studies
