★ Man in the Sunflower Dress - w4m - 23 (chicago)

You were on the southbound Red line last Wednesday. I was late for class, so I was fidgeting in my seat and checking the time on the train's display every stop, and there you were at Clark and Division.

Your eyes were so vividly blue when they flicked over the train, searching for a seat— so light-that-glances-off-the-lake blue, that they must have been contacts, and they went so well with your sunflower print sundress that I felt my breath stutter and catch. I bet you change your eyes to emphasize your clothes: green for fall days and gray in winter when your wardrobe turns black to mourn the decline of the sun. But its spring now, and you opened up, so the roving eye could take in your broad shoulders, your muscular calves. A white jacket over the dress, a pair of yellow Chucks, and your beard adroitly trimmed, and you smiled, a small secret quirk of the lips, as you stared at your phone.

You got off at Lake, and I didn't care if I was late anymore.
