Crayon Papers and A Tour of the Prairies Washington Irving, 1900 The Crayon Papers (1820) Washington Irving, 2018-12-03 I was born among romantic scenery in one of the wildest parts of the Hudson which at that time was not so thickly settled as at present My father was descended from one of the old Huguenot families that came over to this country on the revocation of the edict of Nantz He lived in a style of easy rural independence on a patrimonial estate that had been for two or three generations in the family He was an indolent good natured man who took the world as it went and had a kind of laughing philosophy that parried all rubs and mishaps and served him in the place of wisdom This was the part of his character least to my taste for I was of an enthusiastic excitable temperament prone to kindle up with new schemes and projects and he was apt to dash my sallying enthusiasm by some unlucky joke so that whenever I was in a glow with any sudden excitement I stood in mortal dread of his good humor
