Create Connection Before After Pregnancy:

Give Birth a Chance Ilia Blandina, 2018-02-20 Don't Talk Yourself Out of a VBAC Do you have a deep desire to give vaginal birth after having had a c section VBAC If you know deep in your heart that our ancestors did quite well with natural birth and want to follow in their footsteps If you know this path is a sacred one and you want to make it happen but you don't know where to begin If you long for a vaginal birth It starts with this book Give Birth A Chance is like Birthing from Within meets The Matrix It is a powerful guide to get yourself ready for an empowered birth experience whether you have had a c section before or not Read this book

Making Room in Our Hearts Micky Duxbury, 2007-05-07 Adopted persons face challenges their entire lives as they struggle to answer the most basic question Who am I The hope of open adoption is that adopted children will develop stronger identities if they have the opportunity to develop healthy ongoing relationships with their families of origin Making Room in Our Hearts offers an intimate look at how these relationships evolve over time with real life stories from families who have experienced open adoption first hand This book helps both adoptive and birth parents address their fears and concerns while offering them the support to put the child's psychological and spiritual needs at the center of adoption Based on interviews with more than one hundred adopted children birth and adoptive parents extended families professionals and experts the book is an effective and invaluable resource for those considering open adoption those experiencing it and professionals in the field Openness has altered the landscape of adoption and Making Room in Our Hearts will help us catch up to the reality that is open adoption today

Creating Connection Judith V. Jordan, Jon Carlson, 2014-05-01 Relational Cultural Therapy RCT is developed to accurately address the relational experiences of persons in devalued cultural groups As a model it is ideal for work with couples it encourages active participation in relationships fosters the well being of everyone involved and acknowledges that we grow through and toward relationships throughout the lifespan Part and parcel with relationships is the knowledge that whether intentionally or not we fail each other misunderstand each other and hurt each other causing an oftentimes enduring disconnect This book helps readers understand the pain of disconnect and to use RCT to heal relationships in a variety of settings including with heterosexual couples lesbian and gay couples and mixed race couples Readers will note a blending of approaches person centered narrative systems and feminist theory all used to change the cultural conditions that can contribute to problems unequal sometimes abusive power arrangements marginalization of groups and rigid gender race and sexuality expectations Readers will learn to help minimize economic and power disparities and encourage the growth of mutual empathy while looking at a variety of relational challenges such as parenting stepfamilies sexuality and illness Polarities of you vs me will be replaced with the healing concept of us

Motherhood and the Law Harry Willekens, Kirsten Scheiwe, Theresa Richarz, Eva Schumann, 2019 Who is a child's legal mother Must a child have exactly one mother can it have two or three or can it have two fathers but no mother Or has the concept of motherhood become obsolete and should we just talk of parenthood in a gender neutral way Questions such as these would have appeared esoteric only a few decades ago but as a result of new social developments such as frequent family reconstitutions gay and lesbian emancipation or surrogacy and of technological innovations such as egg and embryo donations they have become issues in a vehement debate The interdisciplinary contributions to this book focus on the legal definition of motherhood on the way in which legal conceptions structure the social discourse on motherhood and vice versa and on the influence of legal rules on power relations between mothers fathers children and the state Among the issues addressed are the challenges to our understanding of the legal regulation of motherhood by developments in reproductive medicine the challenges to our understanding of the legal regulation of motherhood by parental constellations deviating from the mother father model single motherhood by choice same gender parenthood multiple parenthood the exercise of parental rights in case of parental separation and the impact of legal rules on the bargaining positions of mothers and fathers

Creating New Families Jenny Kenrick, Caroline Lindsey, Lorraine Tollemache, 2018-04-24 Creating New Families is intended to reflect the practice of the specialist multi disciplinary Fostering and Adoption team in the Child and Family Department of the Tavistock Clinic. The team is firmly rooted in an approach which values inter disciplinary working for the contribution which the thinking of each discipline makes to the overall endeavour with the child and family. It also places great importance on multi agency collaboration especially with social services and education without which no intervention with this group of children can succeed. The book represents the differing ways in which members contribute to the work of the team with individual and joint accounts by clinicians of the ways in which their therapeutic practice has evolved and about the theoretical thinking on which it is based.
