John Bradshaw

Creating Love The Next Great Stage Of Growth:

Creating Love John Bradshaw, 2013-04-24 Why are so many of us at times completely baffled by a relationship How can we think we know someone so well and admit in the end that we hardly knew that person at all Why do many people who work diligently and strenuously to gain wholeness and balance still feel so frustrated about having a fulfilling relationship Why have so many people given up on love from the Prologue John Bradshaw's bestselling books and compelling PBS series have touched and changed millions of lives Now in Creating Love he offers us a new way to understand our most crucial relationships with our romantic partners and spouses with our parents and children with friends and co workers with ourselves and with God Bradshaw's compassionate approach shows that many of us have been literally entranced by past experiences of counterfeit love so we unknowingly re create patterns that can never fulfill us Here he provides both the insights and the precise tools we need to keep those destructive patterns from repeating in the present And then he shows how we can open ourselves to the soul building work of real love and create healthy loving relationships where we can be fully ourselves in every part of our lives

Creating Love John Bradshaw, 1993 John Bradshaw is a major international figure in the self help and recovery movement In this important and inspiring book he looks at why so many relationships ultimately fail and why other love relationships thrive and are filled with wonder curiosity and joy

Inventing the Child John Zornado, 2013-10-18 Now in paperback Inventing the Child is a highly entertaining humorous and at times acerbic account of what it means to be a child and a parent in America at the dawn of the new millennium J Zornado explores the history and development of the concept of childhood starting with the works of Calvin Freud and Rousseau and culminating with the modern consumer childhood of Dr Spock and television The volume discusses major media depictions of childhood and examines the ways in which parents use different forms of media to swaddle educate and entertain their children Zornado argues that the stories we tell our children contain the ideologies of the dominant culture which more often than not promote happiness at all costs materialism as the way to happiness and above all obedience to the dominant order
