DiRanna,2008-03-07 Valuable for practitioners who wish to improve their teaching and their students learning and for researchers concerned with putting ideas of formative assessment into teaching practice Richard J Shavelson Margaret Jack Professor of EducationStanford University Drawing from conceptual principles and empirical findings that establish the crucial role of ongoing formative assessment the authors describe a professional development framework and program that prepares teachers to adjust their teaching to student thinking in the moment and to refine assessments to better reveal students understandings throughout instruction Joan I Heller DirectorHeller Research Associates A reflective process for integrating assessment and instruction Because assessment and instruction are two sides of the same coin it is critical for teachers to not only assess what students understand but also use that information to adjust their teaching Assessment Centered Teaching ACT is a unique practice that allows teachers to gather information during instruction to uncover learning gaps and guide students toward deeper understandings of complex ideas Suitable for all grade levels this resource describes how reflective practitioners can use the ACT portfolio to reflect on modify and improve their curriculum and instruction The forms included on the CD ROM guide teachers through the process This book encourages educators to Reflect on their own practice Systematically examine student progress toward identified learning goals over time Monitor instruction and assessment for continuous improvement Assessment Centered Teaching helps teachers professional developers and school teams establish quality instructional goals and implement ongoing formative assessment to promote student success

Assessment Tools and Systems Barbara J. Smith,2022-12-27 Feedback matters for everyone committed to school improvement Rather than tweaking flawed assessment tools it is time to consider developing more meaningful feedback systems the impact the critical masses that make up the school community Cultivating new assessment approaches for students staff as well as non instructional staff teacher leaders principals superintendents trustees and grant philanthropic funders can lead to remarkable change The goal of learning for students should not be separate or secondary to performing well on standardized tests Implementing feedback systems that engage and prompt critical and creative thinking should matter more in today s schools Assessment tools that explicitly align with expectations not only create a fair playing field but they can enhance deep learning Assessment Tools and Systems Meaningful Feedback Approaches to Promote Critical and Creative Thinking presents a comprehensive compilation of constructive assessment choices grounded in educational research that emerged through 60 years of experiences as a student teacher principal teacher educator consultant school founder school trustee and educational philanthropist Facilitating Student Learning and Engagement in Higher Education through Assessment Rubrics Peter Grainger,Katie Weir,2020-01-13 Despite significant reforms in the past decade in relation to criteria and standards based assessment in tertiary education contexts assessment remains the most significantly criticised aspect of the student tertiary experience and a major driver of student engagement The key tool in this experience is the rubric also known as the criteria sheet or the Guide to Making Judgments This book discusses the significance of assessment rubrics in tertiary education Assessment rubrics impact the student experience in multiple ways as a guide to students and assessors prior to grading at the point of grading by the assessor when moderating during the post grading process in providing an additional guide to students in the assessment planning stage and as a feedback mechanism to students once results are released This book explains how the rubric reflects key principles of assessment It explores different models of rubrics used in tertiary contexts and provides data from students and academics on the efficacy of these various models as the key tool when marking moderating and providing feedback It also details exemplars of rubrics used in academic disciplines and discusses how higher education teachers use exemplars and how they integrate exemplars with criteria and rubrics It captures the student voice by explaining how students use rubrics for self assessment and self regulation purposes A key inclusion is the importance of sessional staff input into the creation of assessment rubrics prior to the grading moderating and feedback processes
