More Than an Ally Michael L. Boucher,2020-09-15 The Caring Solidarity framework is both descriptive and aspirational It is an attempt to empower White teachers to do the work of interrogating their racial privilege and join in Caring Solidarity with their African American students The framework can be used to describe teachers who are working in Caring Solidarity with their students and to develop teachers with intention toward Caring Solidarity We are in a unique historical moment that demands White teachers become more effective in their schools classrooms and communities and for researchers to find ways to describe those teachers who build relationships of solidarity with students Considering today s tenor of the conversation around race picking up this book and considering its contents is an act of defiance of the current climate and or one of devotion to the art and craft of teaching children Caring Solidarity is not a replacement for current frameworks such as Culturally Sustaining Pedagogy or Abolitionist Pedagogy but is a map for White teachers to journey toward those pedagogies Everyone starts from somewhere The path is winding and long but the goal to create an equitable and humane classroom is worth the trip The purpose of this theory is to point the way

Social Studies Teacher Education

Christopher C. Martell, 2017-10-01 Over the past decade the world has experienced a major economic collapse the increasing racial inequity and high profile police killings of unarmed Black and Brown people the persistence of global terrorism a large scale refugee crisis and the negative impacts of global warming In reaction to social instability there are growing populist movements in the United States and across the world which present major challenges for democracy Concurrently there has been a rise of grassroots political movements focused on increasing equity in relation to race gender class sexual orientation and religion The role of social studies teachers in preparing the next generation of democratic citizens has never been more important and the call for more social studies teacher educators to help teachers address these critical issues only gets louder This volume examines how teacher educators are or are not supporting beginning and experienced social studies teachers in such turbulent times and it offers suggestions for moving the field forward by better educating teachers to address growing local national and global concerns In their chapters authors in social studies education present research with implications for practice related to the following topics race gender sexual orientation immigration religion disciplinary literacy global civics and social justice This book is guided by the following overarching questions What can the research tell us about preparing and developing social studies teachers for an increasingly complex interconnected and rapidly changing world How can we educate social studies teachers to teach against the grain Cochran Smith 1991 2001b centering their work on social justice social change and social responsibility

Preparing White Teachers for Anti-Racist Education

Katrina Liu, Michael K. Thomas, Richard Miller, 2024-12-22 Using a framework combining Critical Race Theory and Critical Reflection and Generativity for Transformative Praxis this book examines both how white preservice teachers conceive of race and racism habits of mind and how they react when dealing with race and racism in the classroom patterns of acting With firm grounding in real world data the authors detail ways in which teacher educators can recognize and deal with preservice teachers who cannot or will not translate their reflections on race into actions against racism
