Get Real Documentary Theatre Past And Present Performance Interventions:

Get Real A. Forsyth, C. Megson, 2009-04-08 Over the past two decades theatre practitioners across the West have turned to documentary modes of performance making to confront new socio political realities The essays in this book place this work in context exploring historical and contemporary examples of documentary and verbatim theatre and applying a range of critical perspectives Authenticity in Contemporary Theatre and Performance Daniel Schulze, 2017-03-23

Authenticity is one of the major values of our time It is visible everywhere from clothing to food to self help books While it is such a prevalent phenomenon it is also very evasive This study analyses the culture of authenticity as it relates to theatre and establishes a theoretical framework for analysis Daniel Schulz argues that authenticity is sought out and marked by the individual and springs from a culture that is perceived as inherently fake and lacking depth The study examines three types of performances that exemplify this structure of feeling intimate theatre seen in Forced Entertainment productions such as Quizoola 1996 2015 as well as one on one performances such as Oentroerend Goed's Internal 2009 immersive theatres as illustrated by Punchdrunk's shows The Masque of the Red Death 2007 and The Drowned Man 2013 which provide a visceral sensate understanding for audiences finally the study scrutinises the popular category of documentary theatre through various examples such as Robin Soan's Talking to Terrorists 2005 David Hare's Stuff Happens 2004 Edmund Burke's Black Watch 2007 and Dennis Kelly's pseudo documentary play Taking Care of Baby 2007 It is specifically the value of the document that lends such performances their truth value and consequently their authenticity The study analyses how the success of these disparate categories of performance can be explained through a common concern with notions of truth and authenticity It argues that this hunger for authentic unmediated experience is characteristic of a structure of feeling that has superseded postmodernism and that actively seeks to resignify artistic and cultural practices of the everyday The

Routledge Companion to Gender, Sex and Latin American Culture Frederick Luis Aldama, 2018-05-24 The Routledge Companion to Gender Sex and Latin American Culture is the first comprehensive volume to explore the intersections between gender sexuality and the creation consumption and interpretation of popular culture in the Americas The chapters seek to enrich our understanding of the role of pop culture in the everyday lives of its creators and consumers primarily in the 20th and 21st centuries They reveal how popular culture expresses the historical social cultural and political commonalities that have shaped the lives of peoples that make up the Americas and also highlight how pop culture can conform to and solidify existing social hierarchies whilst on other occasions contest and resist the status quo Front and center in this collection are issues of gender and sexuality making visible the ways in which subjects who inhabit intersectional identities sex gender race class are othered as well as demonstrating how these same subjects can and do use pop cultural phenomena in self affirmative and progressively transformative ways Topics covered in this volume include TV film pop and performance art hip hop dance slam poetry gender fluid religious ritual theater stand up comedy graffiti performance influences it      Performance and the Global City D. Hopkins, K. Solga, 2013-10-15 Winner of the Association for Theatre in Higher Education Excellence in Editing Award 2016 Following the ground breaking Performance and the City this new volume explores what it means to create and experience urban performance as both an aesthetic and a political practice in the burgeoning world where cities are built by globalization and neoliberal capital      Avant-Garde Performance and Material Exchange M. Sell, 2010-11-30 Assembling a remarkable group of scholars these essays explore how the circulation and exchange of vectors of the radical shape the avant garde Mapping the movement of scripts theatre activists performances and other material entities they provide unprecedented perspectives on the transnational performance culture of the avant garde      Dementia, Narrative and Performance Janet Gibson, 2020-09-29 Focusing mainly on case studies from Australia and the United States of America this book considers how people with dementia represent themselves and are represented in theatre of the real productions and care home interventions assessing the extent to which the right kind of dementia story is being affirmed or challenged It argues that this type of story one of tragedy loss of personhood biomedical deficit and socio economic crisis produces dementia and the people living with it as much as biology does It proposes two novel ideas One is that the gaze of theatre and performance offers a reframing of some of the behaviours and actions of people with dementia through which deficit views can be changed to ones of possibility The other is that conversely dementia offers productive perspectives on theatre of the real Scanning contemporary critical studies about and practices of theatre of the real performances and applied theatre interventions the book probes what it means when certain theatre of the real practices specifically verbatim and autobiographical interact with storytellers considered culturally to be unreliable narrators It also explores whether autobiographical theatre is useful in reinforcing a sense of self for those deemed no longer to have one With a focus on the relationship between stories and selves the book investigates how selves might be rethought so that they are not contingent on the production of lucid self narratives consistent language and truthful memories

Performance, Politics, and the War on Terror Sara Brady, 2012-01-17 Using a performance studies lens this book is a study of performance in the post 9 11 context of the so called war on terror It analyzes conventional theatre political protest performance art and other sites of performance to unpack the ways in which meaning has been made in the contemporary global sociopolitical environment      Shakespeare in Transition M. Kostihová, 2010-10-20 Using themed performance reviews and extensive interviews with theatre professionals this book explores how Shakespeare s cultural capital has been evoked in the reinvention of a post communist nation against a backdrop of political tensions surrounding the ascendance of Central and Eastern Europe to the European Union      The Historical Uncanny Susanne C. Knittel, 2014-12-15 The Historical Uncanny explores how certain memories become inscribed into the heritage of a country or region while others are suppressed or forgotten In response to the erasure of historical memories that discomfit a public s self understanding this book proposes the historical uncanny as that which resists reification precisely because it cannot be assimilated to dominant discourses of commemoration Focusing on the problems of representation and reception the book explores memorials for two marginalized aspects of Holocaust the Nazi euthanasia program directed against the mentally ill and disabled and the Fascist persecution of Slovenes Croats and Jews in and around Trieste Reading these memorials together with literary and artistic texts Knittel redefines sites of memory as assemblages of cultural artifacts and discourses that accumulate over time they emerge as a physical and a cultural space that is continually redefined rewritten and re presented In bringing perspectives from disability studies and postcolonialism to the question of memory Knittel unsettles our understanding of the Holocaust and its place in the culture of contemporary Europe      Masculinities and the Contemporary Irish Theatre B.

Singleton,2010-11-24 Irish theatre and its histories appear to be dominated by men and their actions This book s socially and culturally contextualized analysis of performance over the last two decades however reveals masculinities that are anything but hegemonic played out in theatres and other arenas of performance all over Ireland      Refugees, Theatre and Crisis A.

Jeffers,2011-10-25 Using examples of refugee arts and theatrical activity since the 1990s this book examines how the refugee crisis has conditioned all arts and cultural activity with refugees in a world where globalization and migration go hand in hand      Fair Play - Art, Performance and Neoliberalism J. Harvie,2013-08-29 This book asks what is the quality of participation in contemporary art and performance Has it been damaged by cultural policies which have entrepreneurialized artists cut arts funding and cultivated corporate philanthropy Has it been fortified by crowdfunding pop ups and craftsmanship And how can it help us to understand social welfare      Naming Theatre J. Frieze,2009-10-16 Reading a range of work from the US and UK over the last two decades this is an innovative study of theatre s growing obsession with technologies and effects of naming How does theatre reflect and intervene in naming practices across domains such as philosophy computing journalism anthropology advertising military training and genetics      Contemporary British Queer

Performance S. Greer,2016-02-02 This book examines queer performance in Britain since the early 1990s arguing for the significance of emerging collaborative modes of practice Using queer theory and the history of early lesbian and gay theatre to examine claims to representation among other things it interrogates the relationships through which recent works have been presented
