A Learning Guide for Social Studies Skill Development 7-12 Wisconsin Social Studies Curriculum Study Committee,1979

How to Read Journal Articles in the Social Sciences Phillip Chong Ho Shon,2012-03-19 Shon's writing is engaging and entertaining he opens up the black box of academic reading and writing explaining how to decode and critique formal scientific writing and systematically organize information gained from reading journal articles Dr Lorraine Whitmarsh School of Psychology University of Cardiff UK Once the reader has mastered Philip Shon's codes and applied them to texts it will become increasingly impossible not to write and critique with integrity I thoroughly recommend this book Professor Helen Cowie Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences University of Surrey UK

Many texts provide tips for successfully writing theses dissertations and journal articles All argue that writing is like any other skill it has to be developed taught and practiced daily The same is certainly true of academic reading yet many advanced students have trouble with the essential skill of reading critically This handy guide teaches you how to read so you're able to maximize your output in the writing process whether you're a student or early career researcher The author's unique reading code teaches you how to approach social and behavioural science journal articles as texts that can be deciphered structurally mechanically and grammatically The strategies included allow you to systematize the reading note taking and organizing of voluminous amounts of information in an easily identifiable and retrievable format which will be a huge confidence boost to anyone who struggles with this first phase in the writing process This book is indispensable for social and behavioural science students and researchers worldwide wanting to sharpen their critical evaluative skills for better academic writing
