Self-publishing Unboxed Patty Jansen, 2017-10-08 You intend to self-publish or have published a book or two. You're not selling very well and wonder why not. You feel you should be doing something, but the thought of marketing gives you nightmares. You don't want to become one of these people shouting "Buy My Book" on Twitter. But you would still love to start selling some books and pay some or even all of your bills with your writing income. The good news is that this is ever more possible when self-publishing if you set yourself up right. This is where the three-year plan comes in. The Three Year No Bestseller Plan For Making a Sustainable Living From Your Fiction has been a popular forum and blog post on the subject of career and audience building vs chasing sales and rankings of individual books. People have long asked me if I'm going to turn the post into a book. The post itself is about 1500 words long, but it covers only an overview of the strategy and is intended for people who are already familiar with many of the tactics discussed. There is much I could add and explain in more detail. Enter the book: Self-publishing Unboxed is a 101 guide to self-publishing and selling your self-published books, and it will show you the basics of self-publishing: How to optimise your book's listings, How to decide which services to use and how to pick scams, How to decide what you need to spend your time on besides writing, Easy and cheap ways to promote, And much more. It is ideal for people who are at the beginning of their publishing career as well as those who have dabbled a bit but are ready to take it seriously. Take control of your writing career and get your copy now.

Finding Art's Place Nicholas Paley, 2012-11-12 Finding Art's Place showcases three artistic/educational experiments located outside of school settings. Nicholas Paley presents the texts, voices, and the teaching and learning practices of Tim Rollins' K.O.S. Kids of Survival, the video work of Sadie Benning, the adolescent filmmaker who has won critical acclaim for her sensitive self-explorations of her lesbian sexuality, and the photographic efforts of Jim Hubbard, who shares his expertise with homeless and urban children in Washington D.C. Finding Art's Place explores the many ways education occurs in each of these experiments. Allowing the children and young adults, their mentors, and their work to speak for themselves about their educational experiences, Paley brings forward multiple standpoints on educational methodologies and materials, identity, literacy, and the configurations of art in the lives of urban youth.

Without Their Permission Alexis Ohanian, 2013-10-01 A WALL STREET JOURNAL BESTSELLER As Alexis Ohanian learned when he helped to co-found the immensely popular reddit.com, the internet is the most powerful and democratic tool for disseminating information in human history. And when that power is harnessed to create new communities, technologies, businesses, or charities, the results can be absolutely stunning. In this book, Alexis will share his ideas, tips, and even his own doodles about harnessing the power of the web for good, and along the way, he will share his philosophy with young entrepreneurs all over the globe. At 29, Ohanian has come to personify the dorm room tech entrepreneur changing the world without asking permission Within a couple of years of graduating from the University of Virginia Ohanian did just that selling reddit for millions of dollars He s gone on to start many other companies like hipmunk and breadpig all while representing Y Combinator and investing in over sixty other tech startups WITHOUT THEIR PERMISSION is his personal guidebook as to how other aspiring entrepreneurs can follow in his footsteps
