What We Made Tom Finkelpearl, 2013-01-15 In What We Made Tom Finkelpearl examines the activist participatory coauthored aesthetic experiences being created in contemporary art He suggests social cooperation as a meaningful way to think about this work and provides a framework for understanding its emergence and acceptance In a series of fifteen conversations artists comment on their experiences working cooperatively joined at times by colleagues from related fields including social policy architecture art history urban planning and new media Issues discussed include the experiences of working in public and of working with museums and libraries opportunities for social change the lines between education and art spirituality collaborative opportunities made available by new media and the elusive criteria for evaluating cooperative art Finkelpearl engages the art historians Grant Kester and Claire Bishop in conversation on the challenges of writing critically about this work and the aesthetic status of the dialogical encounter He also interviews the often overlooked co creators of cooperative art expert participants who have worked with artists In his conclusion Finkelpearl argues that pragmatism offers a useful critical platform for understanding the experiential nature of social cooperation and he brings pragmatism to bear in a discussion of Houston's Project Row Houses Interviewees Naomi Beckwith Claire Bishop Tania Bruguera Brett Cook Teddy Cruz Jay Dykeman Wendy Ewald Sondra Farganis Harrell Fletcher David Henry Gregg Horowitz Grant Kester Mierle Laderman Ukeles Pedro Lasch Rick Lowe Daniel Martinez Lee Mingwei Jonah Peretti Ernesto Pujol Evan Roth Ethan Seltzer and Mark Stern

The Art and Craft of Policy Advising David Bromell, 2022-06-20 This book offers a practical guide for policy advisors and their managers grounded in the author's extensive experience as a senior policy practitioner in New Zealand's Westminster style system of government A key message is that effective policy advising is less about cycles stages and steps and more about relationships integrity and communication Policy making is incremental social problem solving Policy advising is mostly learned on the job like an apprenticeship It starts with careful listening knowing one's place in the constitutional scheme of things winning the confidence of decision makers skillfully communicating what they need to hear and not only what they want to hear and learning to lead from behind scheme virtuously and play nicely with others The author introduces a public value approach to policy advising that uses collective thinking to address complex policy problems evidence informed policy analysis that also factors in emotions and values and the practice of gifting and gaining rather than trade offs in the long term public interest Theory is illustrated by personal anecdote and each chapter offers practical processes tools techniques and questions for reflection to help readers master the art and craft of policy advising This second edition has been substantially revised and updated It provides an expanded step by step approach to stakeholder analysis and prioritisation in relation to an agency's own strategic frame it aligns and integrates theory about the public interest public value and anticipatory governance and it updates a fair go multi criteria decision analysis matrix with the latest iteration of the N Z Treasury's Living Standards Framework

The Art of Conscious Conversations Chuck Wisner, 2022-10-25 Ditch the negative mental habits that derail conversations and destroy projects and discover a framework for forging authentic enduring and productive connections We live in conversations like fish live in water we're in them all the time so we don't think about them much As a result we often find ourselves stuck in cyclical patterns of unproductive behaviors We listen half heartedly react emotionally and respond habitually like we're on autopilot This book is a practical guide for thoughtfully reflecting on conversations so we can avoid the common pitfalls that cause our relationships and work to go sideways Chuck Wisner identifies four universal types of conversations and offers specific advice on maximizing the effectiveness of each

Storytelling Investigate the stories we tell ourselves about ourselves and others

Collaborative Explore the way our stories and other people's stories interact

Creative See new possibilities and discover unforeseen solutions

Commitment Make promises we know we can keep These conversations unfold sequentially our awareness of our and others stories transforms our ability to listen and collaborate which opens our thoughts to creative possibilities guiding us toward mindful agreements Our conversations at home at work or in public can be sources of pleasure and stepping stones toward success or they can cause pain and lead to failure Wisner shows how we can form a connection from the very first conversation and keep our discourse positive and productive throughout any endeavor
