Weiss, 2016-09-15 Ceramics give pleasure to our everyday lives from the beauty of a vase's elegant curves to the joy of a meal served upon a fine platter. Ceramics originate in a direct engagement with the earth and maintain a unique place in the history of the arts. In this book Allen S. Weiss sharpens our perception of and increases our appreciation for ceramics all the while providing a critical examination of how and why we collect them. Weiss examines the vast stylistic range of ceramics and investigates both the theoretical and personal reasons for viewing, using, and collecting them. Relating ceramics to other arts and practices, especially those surrounding food, he explores their different uses such as in the celebrated tea ceremony of Japan. Most notably, he considers how works previously viewed as crafts have found their rightful way into museums as well as how this new found engagement with finely wrought natural materials may foster an increased ecological sensitivity. The result is a wide-ranging and sensitive look at a crucial part of our material culture.

Haiku, Other Arts, and Literary Disciplines Toru Kiuchi, Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2022-01-28

Haiku, Other Arts, and Literary Disciplines investigates the genesis and development of haiku in Japan and determines the relationships between haiku and other arts such as essay writing, painting, and music, as well as the backgrounds of haiku such as literary movements, philosophies, and religions that underlie haiku composition. By analyzing the poets who played major roles in the development of haiku and its related genres, these essays illustrate how Japanese haiku poets and American writers such as Emerson and Whitman were inspired by nature, especially its beautiful scenes and seasonal changes. Western poets had a demonstrated affinity for Japanese haiku which bled over into other art mediums as these chapters discuss.

The Poetry of Grief, Gratitude, and Reverence John Brehm, 2024-09-17 A new anthology from the editor of the bestselling Poetry of Impermanence, Mindfulness and Joy, Explorations on a journey through the darkest and brightest moments of our lives, the poems gathered here are explorations of loss, of thanksgiving, of transformation. Some show a path forward and others simply acknowledge and empathize with where we are, but all are celebrations of poetry's ability to express what seemed otherwise inexpressible, to touch deep inside our hearts and also pull ourselves out of our selves and into greater connection with the world around us. Includes poems by Rainer Maria Rilke, Robert Frost, Elizabeth Bishop, Czesław Miłosz, Seamus Heaney, Billy Collins, Joy Harjo, Danusha Lameris, Ada Limón, Kevin Young, Arthur Sze, Ellen Bass, Li Young-Lee, Natasha Trethewey, and many more. The editor also includes an essay on appreciative attention and links to guided meditations for select poems, offering us a chance to have an even deeper experience of reflection.

The Ends of Kinship Sienna R. Craig, 2020-10-15 What sustains and remakes family and community through migration? For centuries, people from Mustang, Nepal, have relied on agriculture, pastoralism, and trade as a way of life. Seasonal migrations to South Asian cities for trade, as well as temporary wage labor abroad, have shaped their experiences for decades. Yet more recently, permanent migrations to New York City, where many have settled, are reshaping lives and social worlds. Mustang has experienced one of the highest rates of depopulation in contemporary Nepal, a profoundly visible depopulation that contrasts with the relative invisibility of Himalayan migrants in New York. Drawing on more than two decades of fieldwork with people in and from

Mustang this book combines narrative ethnography and short fiction to engage with foundational questions in cultural anthropology How do different generations abide with and understand each other How are traditions defended and transformed in the context of new mobilities Anthropologist Sienna Craig draws on khorā the Tibetan Buddhist notion of cyclic existence as well as the daily act of circumambulating the sacred to think about cycles of movement and patterns of world making shedding light on how kinship remains both firm and flexible in the face of migration From a high Himalayan kingdom to the streets of Brooklyn and Queens The Ends of Kinship explores dynamics of migration and social change asking how individuals families and communities care for each other and carve out spaces of belonging It also speaks broadly to issues of immigration and diaspora belonging and identity and the nexus of environmental economic and cultural transformation
