Collecting An Unruly Passion Psychological Perspectives:

Collecting Werner Muensterberger, 1995 With this captivating book a psychoanalyst provides the first psychological examination of the emotional sources of the never ending longing for yet another collectible Includes sketches of diverse collectors such as Walter Benjamin Mario Praz Catherine the Great Petrarch Brunelleschi and Jean de Berry Collecting Werner Muensterberger, 1994 Borderlands, 2021-11-08 Boundaries borderlines limits on the one hand and rites of passage contact zones in between spaces on the other have attracted renewed interest in a broad variety of cultural discourses after a long period of decenterings and delimitations in numerous fields of social psychological and intellectual life Anthropological dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade The aim of Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm Topics discussed include globalization cartography and ontology transitional identity ecocritical sensibility questions of the application of post coloniality gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place As well as studies of the cinema of the settler colonies the films of Neil Jordan and Othering in Canadian sports journalism there are treatments of the Nigerian novel South African prison memoirs and African women's writing Authors examined include Elizabeth Bowen Bruce Chatwin Mohamed Choukri Nuruddin Farah Jamaica Kincaid Pauline Melville Bharati Mukherjee Michael Ondaatje and Leslie Marmon Silko No Innocent Deposits Richard J. Cox, 2004 The public increase of interest in the past has not necessarily brought with it a greater understanding about how archives are formed To this end Richard Cox takes a serious look at archival repositories and collections Cox suggests that archives do not just happen but are consciously shaped and sometimes distorted by archivists the creators of records and other individuals and institutions In this series of essays Cox offers archivists rare insight into the fundamentals of appraisal and historians and other users of archives the opportunity to appreciate the collections they all too often take for granted Collecting in the Twenty-first Century Johannes Endres, Christoph Zeller, 2022 Introduction Collecting in the digital age Christoph Zeller Collecting defining the subject Johannes Endres Collector as curator collecting in the post Internet age Boris Groys Should libraries still be charged with collecting in a digital environment Michael Knoche Museums and collecting as and media in the digital age Peter M McIsaac Quality storage collecting as a technique of reading Nikolaus Wegmann Phenomenology of memory in an age of big data Clifford B Anderson Collecting the cultural memory of Palmyra Erin L Thompson Conservation in the digital age Jessica Walthew Music and the limits of collectability Rolf J Goebel Cat art

David M Jones, Jan S. Slater, 2014-12-18 This is a completely rewritten and updated version of one of the true classic books in the field of marketing and advertising What s in a Name Advertising and the Concept of Brands analyzes brands from the point of view of modern marketing theory It deals in detail with the role of advertising in creating building and maintaining strong brands the lifeblood of any long term marketing campaign The work is empirically based and is supported by the best research from both the professional and academic fields The authors describe the birth and maturity of brands and dissect the patterns of consumer purchasing of repeat purchase goods In addition to all new research findings and examples this new edition of What s in a Name includes first time coverage of the short term medium term and long term effects of advertising on sales of brands The book concludes with new recommendations on how to develop and disseminate better advertising

Nature and culture Samuel J. M. M. Alberti, 2017-10-03 This is a vital new work the first to take the University of Manchester s Museum as its subject By setting the museum in its cultural and intellectual contexts Nature and culture explores twentieth century collecting and display and the status of the object in the modern world Beginning with the origins of the Manchester Museum accounting for its development as an internationally renowned university museum and concluding at its major expansion at the turn of the millennium this book casts new light on the history of museums How did objects become knowledge Who encountered museum objects on their way to museums What happened to collections within the museum How did visitors use and respond to objects In answering these questions Nature and culture illuminates not only the history of one institution but also contributes to wider discussions in the history of science cultural history and museology

Geographies of Nineteenth-Century Science David N. Livingstone, Charles W. J. Withers, 2011-07-15 Here David Livingstone and Charles Withers gather essays that deftly navigate the spaces of science in this significant period and reveal how each is embedded in wider systems of meaning authority and identity

The Routledge Companion to Art and Disability Keri Watson, Timothy W. Hiles, 2022-03-30 The Routledge Companion to

Art and Disability explores disability in visual culture to uncover the ways in which bodily and cognitive differences are articulated physically and theoretically and to demonstrate the ways in which disability is culturally constructed This companion is organized thematically and includes artists from across historical periods and cultures in order to demonstrate the ways in which disability is historically and culturally contingent The book engages with questions such as How are people with disabilities represented in art How are notions of disability articulated in relation to ideas of normality hybridity and anomaly How do artists use visual culture to affirm or subvert notions of the normative body Contributors consider the changing role of disability in visual culture the place of representations in society and the ways in which disability studies engages with and critiques intersectional notions of gender race ethnicity class and sexuality This book will be particularly useful for scholars in art history disability studies visual culture and museum studies Heritage, Museums and Galleries Gerard Corsane, 2005 This reader provides a starting point and introductory resource for anyone wishing to engage with certain key issues relating to the heritage museums and galleries sector Managing Records as Evidence and Information Richard J. Cox, 2000-12-30 For the past three decades policies regarding a variety of information issues have emanated from federal agencies legislative chambers and corporate boardrooms Despite the focus on information policy it is still a relatively new concept and one only now beginning to be studied The subject area is wider than believed archives and records policies information resources management information technology telecommunications international communications privacy and confidentiality computer regulation and crime intellectual property and information systems and dissemination This is not a compendium of policies to be used but rather an exploration in a more detailed fashion of the fundamental principles supporting the setting of records policies Records policies are critically important for records professionals to develop and use as a means of strategically managing the information and evidence found in the millions of records created daily provided that the policies are based on comprehensible principles This is a series of discourses on the fundamentals of archives and records management needing to be understood before any organization attempts to define and set any policy affecting records and information The chapters concern defining records how information technology plays into policy compiling the fundamental tasks of identifying and maintaining records as critical to records and information policy public outreach and advocacy as a key objective for such policy and the role of educating records professionals in supporting sensible records policies A Companion to Archaeology John Bintliff, 2008-04-15 A Companion to Archaeology features essays from 27 of the world's leading authorities on different types of archaeology that aim to define the field and describe what it means to be an archaeologist Shows that contemporary archaeology is an astonishingly broad activity with many contrasting specializations and ways of approaching the material record of past societies Includes essays by experts in reading the past through art linguistics or the built environment and by professionals who present the past through heritage management and museums Introduces the reader to a range of archaeologists those who devote themselves to the philosophy of archaeology those who see archaeology as politics or anthropology and those who contend that the essence of the discipline is a hard science

Antique Tools - Unexpected Finds and Eccentric Objects Jonathan Green-Plumb, 2025-01-03 Have you ever wondered how all the wonderful objects in our museums were made The masterly use of hand tools by our ancestors would probably be at the core of the answer Often those skills and particularly the tools that were used have been left out of the limelight though Are you interested in hand tools and making objects collecting crafts and trades material culture museum studies social history folk art If the answer is yes to any one of these topics this publication may pique your curiosity In this publication various antique tools are illustrated and analysed in relation to their previous functions their cultural value as objects and why they are studied and collected Our current times are dominated by mass produced objects many being the results of computer software design and automated production lines The tools illustrated within this book may provide refreshing alternatives to this Take a closer look at these examples of craftsmanship from our collective past

Cultural Encounters Elizabeth Hallam, Brian Street, 2013-11-05 Cultural Encounters examines how otherness has been constituted communicated and transformed in cultural representation Covering a diverse range of media including film TV advertisements video photographs painting novels poetry newspapers and material objects the contributors who include Ludmilla Jordanova and Ivan Karp explore the cultural politics of Europe s encounters with Brazil India Israel Australia and Africa examining the ways in which visual and textual art forms operate in their treatment of cultural difference

Revolutionary Paris and the Market for Netherlandish Art Darius A. Spieth, 2017-11-06 Seventeenth century Dutch and Flemish paintings were aesthetic intellectual and economic touchstones in the Parisian art world of the Revolutionary era but their importance within this framework while frequently acknowledged never attracted much subsequent attention Darius A Spieth s inquiry into Revolutionary Paris and the Market for Netherlandish Art reveals the dominance of Golden Age pictures in the artistic discourse and sales transactions before during and after the French Revolution A broadly based statistical investigation undertaken as part of this study shows that the upheaval reduced prices for Netherlandish paintings by about 55% compared to the Old Regime and that it took until after the July Revolution of 1830 for art prices to return where they stood before 1789

Consumer Culture Theory Nil Ozcaglar-Toulouse, Diego Rinallo, Russell W. Belk, 2016-12-09 The chapters in this volume are selected from the best papers presented at the 11th Annual Consumer Culture Theory Conference held in Lille France in July 2016 They represent the cutting edge in qualitative consumer research

Analyzing Art and Aesthetics Anne Collins Goodyear, Margaret A. Weitekamp, 2013-10-30 This ninth volume of the Artefacts series explores how artists have responded to developments in science and technology past and present Rather than limiting the discussion to art alone editors Anne Collins Goodyear and Margaret Weitekamp also asked contributors to consider aesthetics the scholarly consideration of sensory responses to cultural objects When considered as aesthetic objects how do scientific instruments or technological innovations reflect and embody culturally grounded assessments about appearance feel and use And when these objects become museum artifacts what aesthetic factors affect their exhibition Contributors found answers in the material objects themselves This volume reconsiders how science technology art and aesthetics impact one another One Coin is Never Enough Michael S. Shutty,2011-09-15 One Coin is Never Enough presents an upbeat friendly analysis that is a celebration of the collector Emphasis is placed on the venerable skills that collectors need to cultivate to get started Michael S Shutty Jr Ph D introduces the idea that coins are transformed into something special when numismatists choose to collect them In this way the collector is placed front and center Michael uses the term marvelous to capture the allure that coins have for sharing secrets about the past but here again he gives coin collectors all the credit for telling their stories This is a unique approach in numismatic writing as more often than not the coins are given precedence After reading this book you will realize that it is the other way around What better way is there to get started or re invigorated with collecting coins
