Innovative Solutions for Building Community in Academic Libraries Bonnand, Sheila, Hansen, Mary Anne, 2015-05-31 The library has always been an essential part of the collegiate experience providing students with access to knowledge and literature. However, as virtual services and online learning become more prominent within collegiate environments, the ways students conduct research and access resources has been altered. Innovative Solutions for Building Community in Academic Libraries examines new methods librarians use to engage both on campus and online users in library services, taking into account the significant impacts of online learning on students' interaction with library resources. Focusing on various outreach practices, techniques of literacy instruction, and the utilization of library spaces, this research-supported book is a pivotal reference source for distance educators, program planners, academics, and library professionals interested in new ways to attract users to library services.

Cases on Establishing Effective Collaborations in Academic Libraries Piorun, Mary E., Raboin, Regina Fisher, 2022-10-07. The forming and nurturing of new partnerships and collaborations is a critical component of librarianship. Academic libraries have a long history of collaboration within the library across their institutions and in their local communities. However, forming new partnerships can be time-consuming and at times frustrating, leaving important opportunities, connections, and projects unrealized. Cases on Establishing Effective Collaborations in Academic Libraries presents case studies on effective collaborations in a variety of settings with different objectives, staffing levels, and budgets that have proven to be successful in creating and maintaining strong and productive partnerships. It identifies and shares the role of the academic library in developing effective partnerships and collaborations within academia and the broader community. Covering topics such as controlled digital lending, research computing, and college readiness enhancement, this premier reference source is a vital resource for librarians and libraries, consortiums, university administrators, students, and educators of higher education, community leaders, researchers, and academicians.

The Mindful Librarian Richard Moniz, Joe Eshleman, Jo Henry, Howard Slutzky, Lisa Moniz, 2015-11-26. The Mindful Librarian: Connecting the Practice of Mindfulness to Librarianship explores mindfulness, approaching it in such a way as to relate specifically to the many roles or challenges librarians face. Coinciding with the increased need to juggle a variety of tasks, technologies, ebooks, and databases, the new Association of College and Research Libraries has been connected to various religious traditions in a wide variety of ways for centuries, most notably Buddhism. In the latter part of the 20th century, however, a secular version was popularized largely by the work of Jon Kabat Zinn and his work on MBSR (Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction) at the University of Massachusetts Medical School. The medical benefits and the overall quality of life improvements from its adoption have exploded in recent years, in particular the last two decades, which have seen mindfulness traditions incorporated into education to a greater degree and with very positive results. Presents the only current LIS book that covers this topic in a way that applies directly to librarians. Provides a topic that will be appealing to librarians as it speaks to the pressures of budget cuts and consumer culture being felt across the academy. Seeks to improve the joy and quality of life that librarians and library science students experience in their personal lives and jobs.
