Strathern, 2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital such as understanding order and change diversity and continuity and conflict and co operation in the reproduction of social life Bringing together leading scholars in the field the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion Rituals Language and Culture

Violence and Gender This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline including Human Rights Globalization and Diasporas and Cosmopolitanism It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike Information Literacy Programs in the Digital Age Alice Daugherty, Michael F. Russo, 2007 Information Literacy Programs in the Digital Age is a showcase of 24 unique online information literacy projects from community colleges research universities and liberal arts colleges Readers will find a wide array of program types subject bases and institutional drivers in this rich compendium Chapter authors discuss the development of online information literacy courses and tutorials along with best practices for embedding information literacy instruction into discipline courses and programs Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1977 Second Handbook of Research on Mathematics Teaching and Learning Frank K. Lester, 2007-02-01 The audience remains much the same as for the 1992 Handbook namely mathematics education researchers and other scholars conducting work in mathematics education This group includes college and university faculty graduate students investigators in research and development centers and staff members at federal state and local agencies that conduct and use research within the discipline of mathematics The intent of the authors of this volume is to provide useful perspectives as well as pertinent information for conducting investigations that are informed by previous work The Handbook should also be a useful textbook for graduate research seminars In addition to the audience mentioned above the present Handbook contains chapters that should be relevant to four other groups teacher educators curriculum developers state and national policy makers and test developers and others involved with assessment Taken as a whole the chapters reflects the mathematics education research community's willingness to accept the challenge of helping the public understand what mathematics education research is all about and what the relevance of their research findings might be for those outside their immediate community Becoming an African Diaspora in Australia F. Ndhlovu, 2014-07-08 Becoming an African Diaspora in Australia extends debates on identities cultures and notions of race and racism into new directions as it analyses the forms of interactional identities of African migrants in Australia It de naturalises the commonplace assumptions and imaginations about the cultures and identities of African diaspora communities and probes the relevance and usefulness of identity markers such as country of origin nationality ethnicity ethnic heritage language and mother tongue Current cultural frames of identity representation have so far failed to capture the complexities of everyday lived experiences of transnational individuals and groups Therefore by drawing on fresh concepts and recent empirical evidence this book invites the reader to revisit and rethink the vocabularies that we use to look at identity categories such as race culture language ethnicity nationality and citizenship and introduces a new language nesting model of diaspora identity This book will be of great interest to all students of migration diaspora African and Australian studies The Ashgate Research Companion to Non-State Actors Bob Reinalda, 2016-03-23 How do non
