Quitting the Sex Trade Amber Horning, 2021-05-13 This anthology of original research studies focuses on why and how sex workers and pimps quit the sex trade There is an extensive literature on desistance with different theories explaining why people quit crime However with a few notable exceptions researchers to date have not focused on desistance among pimps and sex workers These studies explore a spectrum of quitting the sex trade from voluntarily stopping drifting and retiring to intervention based or coerced stopping due to influences and impositions by programs and or by specialized courts This book provides insight into the meaning of this work how people in the sex trade view their engagement in licit illicit spheres and it will inform providers who interface with people from these communities regarding how to support desistance Further this book may help those engaged in emerging topics related to the sex trade including 1 global trends in sex trade decriminalization and or human trafficking criminalization 2 the recent emergence of human trafficking intervention courts in the USA and 3 the development and impact of new laws policies and intervention programs designed to reduce human trafficking globally regionally country level and or more localized efforts to support desistance among participants in the sex trade The book will be of interest to academics researchers and advanced students of Criminology Sociology Law Policy and Psychology It was originally published as a special issue in the journal Victims Offenders Social Work Practice with Survivors of Sex Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation Andrea J. Nichols, Tonya Edmond, Erin C. Heil, 2018-04-03 As awareness and identification of sex trafficking and exploitation have grown so has the need for improved social work responses In this volume expert practitioners survivors and researchers model the best practices for working with this population using case examples and illustrative guides Chapters cover the common challenges of working with trafficked and exploited people and how to overcome them including topics like runaway youth trauma bonds system level challenges and resource scarcity Intended as a teaching tool for students or a supplementary manual for organizations this book emphasizes interventions and treatments working with specific populations programmatic design recommendations preventative work and outreach interventions Researchers students and practitioners will find a comprehensive guide to the emerging field of practice with sex trafficking and exploitation survivors

Eradicating Human Trafficking: Culture, Law and Policy Gabriela Curras DeBellis, 2021-12-13 With over 40 million people still enslaved around the world this book takes a closer look at the role of culture in society and how certain practices beliefs or behaviors may be fueling human trafficking beyond what the law can curtail The study reveals cultural elements that conflict with existing anti human trafficking laws across three case studies United States India and Costa Rica There is no simple answer or a single solution to stop or significantly reduce the crime but a pragmatic multi disciplinary and human rights approach to the problem may bring to light that efforts to curtail human trafficking will be in vain if we rely on law alone A fundamental shift in culture is imperative

Child Trafficking in the EU Pete Fussey, Paddy Rawlinson, 2017-03-27 Drawing on empirical research conducted with police in the UK and Romania Child Trafficking in the EU explores the way in which the who and how we police and protect as trafficker and trafficked is related to Western notions of innocence guilt childhood and of the status of deserving victim This book progresses a new theoretical space by linking its analysis to sociologies of mobility marginalisation and the pluralised rendering of criminalised and victimised others This book explores core contextual themes surrounding the commission response to and origins of child trafficking and presents empirical research into the investigation of child trafficking within the EU situating the authors findings against broader social cultural political policy and judicial contexts The authors conclude with a syntheses of the key themes and arguments to situate pan EU child trafficking within political criminal justice organisational cultural and social contexts and consider the degree to which such criminality can be adequately addressed by current and emerging approaches given such enduring and persistent structural issues This book will be of interest to scholars and students within the fields of criminology sociology political science and law as well as a key resource for practitioners and activists

Art Therapy Treatment with Sex Trafficking Survivors Mary K. Kometiani,2019-10-16 This groundbreaking book introduces and researches art therapy as a creative and effective treatment for the sensitive and pertinent issue of human sex trafficking

Rich empirical examples and best practices are provided through the contributors expertise and knowledge in the field of art therapy Art therapy facilitates emotional catharsis a personal sense of worth and empowerment through making choices supports connection to others and the inner self resolves trauma grief and shame and provides hope for the future and recovery This book explores art therapy interventions and outcomes through detailed case studies for sex trafficking survivors in the United States India and Nepal and includes international recommendations for survivor treatment and recovery as well as staff support programming Professional helpers and learners from mental health social services medical care and those who work with trafficking and sexual abuse survivors will benefit from this guide Trafficking Trajectories Alicia W. Peters, 2025-07-15 Highlights the role structural vulnerability plays in the lived realities of domestic sex trafficking survivors before during and after trafficking Drawing on survivor narratives and ethnographically rich accounts from frontline workers in New England specifically Maine and New Hampshire Trafficking Trajectories contextualizes the ways in which structural vulnerability is embodied by domestic sex trafficking survivors in complex ways over time The book also makes legible where and when upstream responses are most needed to prevent trafficking from occurring Trafficking Trajectories counters the dominant trafficking narrative of victims and villains and how this narrative decontextualizes and isolates the period of victimization and rescue from broader experiences of vulnerability Instead Alicia Peters centers survivor experience to highlight the role of structural violence and vulnerability before during and after trafficking Focusing on the lived realities of survivors she argues that prioritizing an interventionist criminal legal response to trafficking does little to address the issues that make individuals vulnerable to trafficking in the first place and fails to end trafficking Peters combines nuanced accounts of survivors with the observations and quandaries faced by frontline workers to reveal opportunities for rethinking and broadening the response to trafficking to make it more focused on prevention and thus more effective The book reframes trafficking not as sporadic instances of interpersonal violence requiring criminal legal intervention but as structural violence that requires systematic and preventive intervention Trafficking Trajectories concludes with a series of policy recommendations intended to address human trafficking at its root Navigating Contemporary Sex Work Emily Cooper, Laura Graham, Lynzi Armstrong, Martin Zebracki, Paul Maginn, 2024-10-14 This book draws together interdisciplinary perspectives to examine the legal moral and socio spatial regulation of sex work in the contemporary context With a thematic focus on the gendered landscape of sex work formal and informal methods of socio spatial control and in access to justice this book explores the role of space in the regulation of sex work in diverse contexts from the local to the global The chapters collectively bring together complex inter related issues that impact the lives of sex workers throughout the world providing evidence of the impacts of regulation on sex workers and subsequent barriers to accessing justice and rights This collection centres the regulated lives of sex workers using an intersectional lens that highlights the gendered and racialised impacts of stigma Incorporating knowledge derived from both academic research and lived experience this book provides a unique contribution that will be of interest to academics and policy makers globally

Research Methods for Generalist Social Work Christine R. Marlow, 2023-02-28 Social work professionals must have a deep understanding of research methods to effectively serve their clients and communities In this comprehensive guide Christine Marlow emphasizes this link between research and practice She focuses on the relevance of research methods within agency work where most social work graduates will be employed rather than strictly an academic setting With a focus on generalist social work practice she offers a clear and concise overview of the research process including identifying research questions selecting appropriate research designs and analyzing data Using real world examples and case studies Marlow helps readers understand how research can be used to inform social work practice and drive positive change in communities With a strong emphasis on ethics and cultural competence this text prepares social work students and professionals to conduct research that is both effective and socially responsible The New Slave Narrative Laura T.

Murphy, 2019-09-17 A century and a half after the abolition of slavery in the United States survivors of contemporary forms of enslavement from around the world have revived a powerful tool of the abolitionist movement first person narratives of slavery and freedom Just as Frederick Douglass Harriet Jacobs and others used autobiographical testimonies in the fight to eradicate slavery today s new slave narrators play a crucial role in shaping an antislavery agenda Their writings unveil the systemic underpinnings of global slavery while critiquing the precarity of their hard fought freedom At the same time the demands of antislavery organizations religious groups and book publishers circumscribe the voices of the enslaved coopting their narratives in support of alternative agendas In this pathbreaking interdisciplinary study Laura T Murphy argues that the slave narrative has reemerged as a twenty first century genre that has gained new currency in the context of the memoir boom post 9 11 anti Islamic sentiment and conservative family values politics She analyzes a diverse range of dozens of book length accounts of modern slavery from Africa Asia the United States the United Kingdom and Europe examining the narrative strategies that survivors of slavery employ to make their experiences legible and to promote a reinvigorated antislavery agenda By putting these stories into conversation with one another The New Slave Narrative reveals an emergent survivor centered counterdiscourse of collaboration and systemic change that offers an urgent critique of the systems that maintain contemporary slavery as well as of the human rights industry and the antislavery movement
