Advances

in Web Based Learning - ICWL 2007 Howard Leung, Frederick Li, Rynson Lau, Qing Li, 2008-03-14 This year we received a record high of about 180 submissions to ICWL 2007. From these a total of 55 full papers plus one keynote paper were accepted for this LNCS proceedings volume representing an acceptance rate of about 30%. The authors of these accepted papers were of a remarkable international diversity. We would like to thank all the reviewers for spending their precious time reviewing the papers and for providing valuable comments that aided significantly in the paper selection process. Authors of the best papers presented at this conference will be invited to submit extended versions of their papers for possible publication in 1 a special issue of IEEE Trans on Knowledge and Data Engineering for those papers relevant to knowledge and data engineering and 2 a special issue of the International Journal of Distance Education Technologies JDET for papers of other areas. This was the first time that the ICWL conference was organized in Europe and 27 papers were from European researchers. We would like to thank our Organization Chair Dr Taku Komura for spending an enormous amount of energy in coordinating the local arrangements. In fact we would like to thank the entire conference organization committee for their hard work in putting together the conference. In particular we would like to express our appreciation to our Registration Chair Dr Doing Qualitative Research in Psychology Michael A Forrester, 2010-03-25 Electronic Inspection Copy available for instructors here. Providing a complete introduction to qualitative methods in psychology, this textbook is ideal reading for anyone doing a research methods course in psychology that includes qualitative approaches or someone planning a practical project using qualitative methods. Not just another research methods book, Doing Qualitative Research in Psychology is more a how to do it manual linked with a specifically designed set of digitised video recordings, transcripts and online resources to make learning about qualitative methods as easy as possible. The primary resources are a set of online publically available video recorded interviews produced by the editor and contributors to support student learning. The text offers useful descriptions of how and why research questions are formulated and explains the importance of selecting appropriate methods for research investigations. Using examples from the specially produced data set it describes four specific qualitative methods outlining in its very clear how to proceed style how each of these methods can form the basis of a qualitative methods laboratory class, practical or field study. As well as covering key topics such as ethics, literature reviews and interviewing, the book also describes precisely how research reports using qualitative methods are written up in line with the appropriate conventions within psychology.
