The Reviewer's Guide to Quantitative Methods in the Social Sciences

Gregory R. Hancock, Laura M. Stapleton, Ralph O. Mueller, 2018-11-15 The Reviewer's Guide to Quantitative Methods in the Social Sciences provides evaluators of research manuscripts and proposals in the social and behavioral sciences with the resources they need to read understand and assess quantitative work 35 uniquely structured chapters cover both traditional and emerging methods of quantitative data analysis which neither junior nor veteran reviewers can be expected to know in detail The second edition of this valuable resource updates readers on each technique's key principles appropriate usage underlying assumptions and limitations providing reviewers with the information they need to offer constructive commentary on works they evaluate Written by methodological and applied scholars this volume is also an indispensable author's reference for preparing sound research manuscripts and proposals

The Handbook on Socially Interactive Agents

Birgit Lugrin, Catherine Pelachaud, David Traum, 2021-09-17 The Handbook on Socially Interactive Agents provides a comprehensive overview of the research fields of Embodied Conversational Agents Intelligent Virtual Agents and Social

Robotics Socially Interactive Agents SIAs whether virtually or physically embodied are autonomous agents that are able to perceive an environment including people or other agents reason decide how to interact and express attitudes such as emotions engagement or empathy They are capable of interacting with people and one another in a socially intelligent manner using multimodal communicative behaviors with the goal to support humans in various domains Written by international experts in their respective fields the book summarizes research in the many important research communities pertinent for SIAs while discussing current challenges and future directions The handbook provides easy access to modeling and studying SIAs for researchers and students and aims at further bridging the gap between the research communities involved In two volumes the book clearly structures the vast body of research The first volume starts by introducing what is involved in SIAs research in particular research methodologies and ethical implications of developing SIAs It further examines research on appearance and behavior focusing on multimodality Finally social cognition for SIAs is investigated using different theoretical models and phenomena such as theory of mind or pro sociality The second volume starts with perspectives on interaction examined from different angles such as interaction in social space group interaction or long term interaction It also includes an extensive overview summarizing research and systems of human agent platforms and of some of the major application areas of SIAs such as education aging support autism and games

Bayesian Statistics for the Social Sciences David Kaplan, 2014-07-23 Bridging the gap between traditional classical statistics and a Bayesian approach David Kaplan provides readers with the concepts and practical skills they need to apply Bayesian methodologies to their data analysis problems Part I addresses the elements of Bayesian inference including exchangeability likelihood prior posterior distributions and the Bayesian central limit theorem Part II covers Bayesian hypothesis testing model building and linear regression analysis carefully explaining the differences between the Bayesian and frequentist approaches Part III extends Bayesian statistics to multilevel modeling and modeling for continuous and categorical latent variables Kaplan closes with a discussion of philosophical issues and argues for an evidence based framework for the practice of Bayesian statistics User Friendly Features Includes worked through substantive examples using large scale educational and social science databases such as PISA Program for International Student Assessment and the LSAY Longitudinal Study of American Youth Utilizes open source R software programs available on CRAN such as MCMCpack and rjags readers do not have to master the R language and can easily adapt the example programs to fit individual needs Shows readers how to carefully warrant priors on the basis of empirical data Companion website features data and code for the book's examples plus other resources

Measurement Theory and Applications for the Social Sciences Deborah L. Bandalos, 2018-01-31 Which types of validity evidence should be considered when determining whether a scale is appropriate for a given measurement situation What about reliability evidence Using clear explanations illustrated by examples from across the social and behavioral sciences this engaging text prepares students to make effective decisions about the selection administration scoring interpretation and development of measurement instruments Coverage includes the essential measurement topics of scale development item writing and analysis and reliability and validity as well as more advanced topics such as exploratory and confirmatory factor analysis item response theory diagnostic classification models test bias and fairness standard setting and equating End of chapter exercises with answers emphasize both computations and conceptual understanding to encourage readers to think critically about the material

Introduction to Mediation, Moderation, and Conditional Process Analysis, Second Edition Andrew F. Hayes, 2017-10-30 This book has been replaced by Introduction to Mediation

Moderation and Conditional Process Analysis Third Edition ISBN 978 1 4625 4903 0 Hypothesis Testing and Model Selection in the Social Sciences David L. Weakliem, 2016-04-25 Examining the major approaches to hypothesis testing and model selection this book blends statistical theory with recommendations for practice illustrated with real world social science examples It systematically compares classical frequentist and Bayesian approaches showing how they are applied exploring ways to reconcile the differences between them and evaluating key controversies and criticisms The book also addresses the role of hypothesis testing in the evaluation of theories the relationship between hypothesis tests and confidence intervals and the role of prior knowledge in Bayesian estimation and Bayesian hypothesis testing Two easily calculated alternatives to standard hypothesis tests are discussed in depth the Akaike information criterion AIC and Bayesian information criterion BIC The companion website www.guilford.com/weakliem/materials supplies data and syntax files for the book's examples

Statistical Methods in Psychiatry and Related Fields Ralitzia Gueorguieva, 2017-11-20 Data collected in psychiatry and related fields are complex because outcomes are rarely directly observed there are multiple correlated repeated measures within individuals there is natural heterogeneity in treatment responses and in other characteristics in the populations Simple statistical methods do not work well with such data More advanced statistical methods capture the data complexity better but are difficult to apply appropriately and correctly by investigators who do not have advanced training in statistics This book presents at a non technical level several approaches for the analysis of correlated data mixed models for continuous and categorical outcomes nonparametric methods for repeated measures and growth mixture models for heterogeneous trajectories over time Separate chapters are devoted to techniques for multiple comparison correction analysis in the presence of missing data adjustment for covariates assessment of mediator and moderator effects study design and sample size considerations The focus is on the assumptions of each method applicability and interpretation rather than on technical details Features Provides an overview of intermediate to advanced statistical methods applied to psychiatry Takes a non technical approach with mathematical details kept to a minimum Includes lots of detailed examples from published studies in psychiatry and related fields Software programs data sets and output are available on a supplementary website The intended audience are applied researchers with minimal knowledge of statistics although the book could also benefit collaborating statisticians The book together with the online materials is a valuable resource aimed at promoting the use of appropriate statistical methods for the analysis of repeated measures data Ralitza Gueorguieva is a Senior Research Scientist at the Department of Biostatistics Yale School of Public Health She has more than 20 years experience in statistical methodology development and collaborations with psychiatrists and other researchers and is the author of over 130 peer reviewed publications

Confirmatory Factor Analysis for Applied Research Timothy A. Brown, 2014-12-29 With its emphasis on practical and conceptual aspects rather than mathematics or formulas this accessible book has established itself as the go to resource on confirmatory factor analysis CFA Detailed worked through examples drawn from psychology management and sociology studies illustrate the procedures pitfalls and extensions of CFA methodology The text shows how to formulate program and interpret CFA models using popular latent variable software packages LISREL Mplus EQS SAS CALIS understand the similarities and differences between CFA and exploratory factor analysis EFA and report results from a CFA study It is filled with useful advice and tables that outline the procedures The companion website www.guilford.com/brown3 materials offers data and program syntax files for most of the research examples as well as links to CFA related resources New to This Edition Updated throughout to incorporate important developments in latent variable modeling Chapter on Bayesian CFA and multilevel measurement models Addresses new topics with examples exploratory structural equation modeling bifactor analysis measurement invariance evaluation with categorical indicators and a new method for scaling latent variables Utilizes the latest versions of major latent variable software packages

Introduction to Mediation, Moderation, and Conditional Process Analysis Andrew F. Hayes, 2013-04-22 Explaining the fundamentals of mediation and moderation analysis this engaging book also shows how to integrate the two using an innovative strategy known as conditional process analysis Procedures are described for testing hypotheses about the mechanisms by which causal effects operate the conditions under which they occur and the moderation of mechanisms Relying on the principles of ordinary least squares regression Andrew Hayes carefully explains the estimation and interpretation of direct and indirect effects probing and visualization of interactions and testing of questions about moderated mediation Examples using data from published studies illustrate how to conduct and report the analyses described in the book Of special value the book introduces and documents PROCESS a macro for SPSS and SAS that does all the computations described in the book The companion website www.afhayes.com offers free downloads of PROCESS plus data files for the book's examples Unique features include Compelling examples presumed media influence sex discrimination in the workplace and more with real data boxes with SAS SPSS and PROCESS code and loads of tips including how to report mediation moderation and conditional process analyses Appendix that presents documentation on use and features of PROCESS Online supplement providing data code and syntax for the book's examples

Psychometric Methods Larry R. Price, 2016-12-12 Grounded in current knowledge and professional practice this book provides up to date coverage of psychometric theory methods and interpretation of results Essential topics include measurement and statistical concepts scaling models test design and development reliability validity factor analysis item response theory and generalizability theory Also addressed are norming and test equating topics not typically covered in traditional psychometrics texts Examples drawn from a dataset on intelligence testing are used throughout the book elucidating the assumptions underlying particular methods and providing SPSS or alternative syntax for conducting analyses The companion website presents datasets for all examples as well as PowerPoint slides of figures and key concepts Pedagogical features include equation boxes with explanations of statistical notation and end of chapter glossaries The Appendix offers extensions of the topical chapters with example source code from SAS SPSS IRTPRO BILOG MG PARSCALE TESTFACT and DIMTEST

Confirmatory Factor Analysis for Applied Research, Second Edition Timothy A. Darlington, Andrew F.

Hayes, 2016-09-27 Emphasizing conceptual understanding over mathematics this user friendly text introduces linear regression analysis to students and researchers across the social behavioral consumer and health sciences Coverage includes model construction and estimation quantification and measurement of multivariate and partial associations statistical control group comparisons moderation analysis mediation and path analysis and regression diagnostics among other important topics Engaging worked through examples demonstrate each technique accompanied by helpful advice and cautions The use of SPSS SAS and STATA is emphasized with an appendix on regression analysis using R The companion website www.afhayes.com provides datasets for the book's examples as well as the RLM macro for SPSS and SAS Pedagogical Features Chapters include SPSS SAS or STATA code pertinent to the analyses described with each distinctively formatted for easy identification An appendix documents the RLM macro which facilitates computations for estimating and probing interactions dominance analysis heteroscedasticity consistent standard errors and linear spline regression among other analyses Students are guided to practice what they learn in each chapter using datasets provided online Addresses topics not usually covered such as ways to measure a variable's importance coding systems for representing categorical variables causation and myths about testing interaction The Emotional Antecedents and Consequences of Social Rejection Richard Pond, John

Terrizzi, Shanmukh V. Kamble, 2023-10-24 Humans are social animals Our need to belong is a cross cultural human universal When our desire for social connection is frustrated we can suffer from a host of harmful psychological and physiological consequences As a result social rejection can be an extremely aversive experience that can be strategically employed to inflict harm punishment e.g. relational aggression Social rejection has both emotional antecedents and consequences That is social rejection can be elicited by emotions e.g. anger disgust etc within the rejecter and can evoke emotional reactions within the rejected e.g. anger sadness etc Thus the role that emotion plays in social rejection is not simple It is multifaceted Negative emotions such as anger and disgust can provoke social rejection and reciprocally they can evoke negative emotions in those who are socially rejected Positive emotions however may act as a buffer or shield that insulates us from the deleterious consequences of rejection

Decoding Doing Statistical Mediation And Moderation Methodology In The Social Sciences: Revealing the Captivating Potential of Verbal Expression

In a time characterized by interconnectedness and an insatiable thirst for knowledge, the captivating potential of verbal expression has emerged as a formidable force. Its capability to evoke sentiments, stimulate introspection, and incite profound transformations is genuinely awe-inspiring. Within the pages of "Doing Statistical Mediation And Moderation Methodology In The Social Sciences," a mesmerizing literary creation penned by a celebrated wordsmith, readers set about an enlightening odyssey, unraveling the intricate significance of language and its enduring affect our lives.
