

What do you call a person who is happy on Monday morning?

Shakuto, 2025-01-07 An ethnography of silver backpackers that offers a feminist perspective on what makes a good retirement in contemporary societies The moniker silver backpackers refers to Japanese couples who in their mid fifties to seventies move to Malaysia to enjoy their retirement Recent scholarship on Japan has revealed how the gendered division of labor impacts the lives of middle class workers and their families But how do cultural values live on or change when these professionals retire from work move on from identities built through salaried careers and embark on a new phase of life After Work takes up this question to focus on what comes after work and in the process expands our understanding of aging gender migration and the future of work Based on fifteen months of fieldwork in Kuala Lumpur and employing a transnational feminist framework After Work investigates moments of difference in the experiences of older women and men to examine patriarchal conversations that dominate ideas about contemporary retirement Shiori Shakuto argues that anxiety around self and belonging in retirement are instigated by the capitalist labor regime and the discourse of successful aging both of which devalue nonremunerated activities conducted at home What is needed instead she contends is a re valuation of key domestic activities from caring for children to pursuing individual hobbies so that life can be appreciated in its entirety Shakuto also takes into account the fact that this transnational retirement is set in Malaysia a nation that Japan occupied during World War II and thereafter subject to decades of economic investment and resource exploitation by Japanese corporations Highlighting how historical cultural and racialized complexities entangle with intimate relations in increasingly connected Asian countries while simultaneously acknowledging how the boundaries between work and life blur ever more in contemporary society After Work complicates our perceptions of aging and a good retirement as well as our understandings of gender migration and the future of work as we know it The $5 Cup of Coffee is Ruining My Retirement Paul Scheiner, BSE, MSE, 2008-08-13 Have you worked hard at your job for most of your life and find that you have little if anything to show for it but debts and credit card bills Do you feel like you can't save a dime because of the demands of a growing family Does it frustrate you when you try to figure out how you can possibly build a retirement nest egg under these conditions The 5 Cup of Coffee is Ruining My Retirement will teach you the lifestyle changes necessary to eliminate waste and pay off debt in order to start building your nest egg It will help you develop your own personalized financial plan and make your money work for you There are chapters aimed at providing novice investors with a basic understanding of investments and how to safely increase the value of their assets In addition the book explores a number of personal issues associated with leaving the job force selecting leisure activities and controlling spending in the retirement years Now Paul Scheiner gives you the tools to master the art of controlling your spending and building wealth Hundreds of books offer advice on preparing for retirement but few focus specifically on the day to day issues facing the family of today as they try to pay their bills avoid debt and have something left over to build their nest egg Unlike other books it is aimed at the average adult who does not have a financial education The 5 Cup of Coffee is Ruining My Retirement is a book that you will want to keep on your shelf for reference over the years The 5 Cup of Coffee is Ruining My Retirement reviews How much of a nest egg you need to retire Eliminating waste in everyday activities Taking advantage of other people's money Diversifying your investments How to grow your nest egg The various forms of investing The magic of compounding Issues related to early retirement Outliving your money Getting the most out of retirement activities Plus numerous other issues Hearings United States.
