Responding to Abuse in Christian Homes Nancy Nason-Clark, Catherine Clark Kroeger, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, 2011-03-04 Domestic abuse is a horror It lurks beneath the surface of our collective existence sometimes raising its ugly head where least expected in the church or within families of faith Are we individually or collectively ready to respond What can or should congregations and their pastoral leaders do And as we survey the Christian landscape across the United States and Canada are we as the community of faith stepping up to the challenge presented by violence in the family There is no easy answer to the problems that surface when abuse impacts the Christian family But each of the authors contributing to this volume believes fervently that it is imperative that followers of Jesus and their spiritual shepherds respond to the cries for help To respond well necessitates both knowledge and a willingness to act This book is here to help It represents a collective effort to bring all of us a step farther in our journey of walking with Christ over a sea of troubled waters None of us know as much as we should but all of us can learn from one another Throughout the collection we provide an opportunity to examine a diversity of perspectives with the hope that each will in some way advance our understanding of the complexity of domestic violence issues in our midst within our churches and the communities where our churches minister

God's love for you is so deep and so intense that the pain you experience He experiences. When you cry He cries. When you hurt He hurts. He knows your pain and suffering is very real and very damaging. God has a lot to say about verbal, physical, mental, financial and sexual abuse. After reading this book you will know beyond a shadow of a doubt that God has a zero tolerance for abuse. In fact, over 1000 Scriptures talk about abuse. He wants you to know that regardless of what you've been told or shamed into believing, God does not condone abuse ever. And God Himself says it's not okay ever. I know you will cherish the precious words of God as He reveals His heart to you throughout this book. As a result of readings and meditating on the Scriptures in this book, you will experience total freedom and lasting joy. And that freedom is the most wonderful thing you will ever experience. I promise God sees your pain. There is not one tear shed that He doesn't see. Not one hurt or pain that doesn't go unnoticed. Not one violent act that hasn't been recorded. God Himself says that He will wipe away every tear. He will not send someone to wipe your tears; He will wipe away every tear Himself. He says that there will be no more mourning, no more sorrow, and no more pain. He says He will make everything brand new. God is devastated by the abuse done to you. He is not only devastated by it but feels the pain you've felt. There is a Greek word spagchnizomai that is used in conjunction with the compassion of Jesus. Whenever Jesus was going to heal someone, this word is used. The best way to describe this word would be Jesus actually enters into the pain someone is suffering. His love is so deep that He actually experiences the same identical pain or emotion we feel. He was so deeply moved with compassion that their pain is His pain, and through that deep level of compassion, He is able to heal. This is what Jesus is doing with you this very moment. As He sees your tears and witnesses the abuse done to you, it is equivalent to the abuser abusing Jesus. He feels your pain fully and He is devastated by it. No one can ever really understand the pain we feel, even someone who has endured the same abuse, but the Almighty God does. He sees your hurts, your pain, the sorrow, and He says He is coming and He will take it away. Did you ever cry out to God, begging, pleading, wishing He'd help intervene? He promises that by no means will He let the guilty go unpunished. There is no wrong done by an unrepentant sinner that will be erased. Everyone who has wronged you will be held accountable for all that has been done to you. This promise book has been created to introduce you to my God, the God of Justice and the God of Protection.

The Routledge Handbook of Gender and Violence Nancy Lombard, 2018-01-02. The Routledge Handbook of Gender and Violence provides both a comprehensive and authoritative state-of-the-art overview of the latest research in the field of gender and violence. Each of the 23 specially commissioned chapters develops and summarises their key issue or debate, including rape, stalking, online harassment, domestic abuse, FGM, trafficking, and prostitution in relation to gender and violence. They study violence against women but also look at male victims and perpetrators as well as gay, lesbian, and transgender violence. The interdisciplinary nature of the subject area is highlighted with authors spanning criminology, social policy, sociology, geography, health, media, and law, alongside activists and members of statutory and third sector organisations. The diversity of perspectives all highlight that gendered violence is both an age old and continuing social problem By drawing together leading scholars this handbook provides an up to the minute snapshot of current scholarship as well as signposting several fruitful avenues for future research This book is both an invaluable resource for scholars and an indispensable teaching tool for use in the classroom and will be of interest to students academics social workers and other professionals working to end gender based violence     Subject Guide to Books in Print

Gender violence. Change your life and stop being a victim, it's easy! Oleg Nashchubskiy, Gender based violence is a complex and multifaceted issue and many people even if they do not have direct experience as a victim or perpetrator still have difficulty understanding it Initially it is important to recognize that gender based violence is not limited to physical violence It also includes emotional psychological and economic abuse as well as threats and control Most cases of gender based violence do not occur due to force but rather due to the desire to control and suppress another person Regarding the question of why men commit gender based violence and women remain in such relationships the answers can be multifaceted and depend on the specific situation For example men may use gender based violence to maintain power and control in relationships and women may remain in such relationships due to fear dependency economic vulnerability or cultural and social dynamics Gender based violence is a broad and complex social problem that affects many aspects of human life It can manifest itself in various forms and contexts including the family environment social relationships work environment etc It is important to understand that gender based violence is not limited only to physical actions although they often act as one of its manifestations It also includes emotional abuse psychological abuse economic abuse and threats and behavioral control One of the main causes of gender based violence is the desire to control and suppress another person This may occur due to inequalities in power and status between partners as well as cultural and social attitudes that support and reinforce inequality between genders In addition stereotypes about masculinity and femininity can contribute to the emergence and maintenance of gender based violence by creating norms of behavior that justify or normalize such actions It is important to understand that gender based violence can affect all people regardless of their gender age race social status or other characteristics Although women make up the majority of victims of gender based violence men can also be victims and this often goes unappreciated or underappreciated in society Gender based violence can affect both women and men and people of any gender identity It is important to understand that gender based violence is not limited to female victims although women and girls make up a significant proportion of victims However men boys and people with other gender identities can also be vulnerable to gender based violence Research shows that men can also be victims of gender based violence but the frequency and forms of violence may vary depending on cultural social and other factors Gender based violence is a complex and diverse issue that requires attention and support for all victims regardless of their gender identity Combating gender based violence requires a systemic approach that includes education and public awareness of the problem strengthening legal and legal responses support for victims and working to change cultural norms and stereotypes about gender Working to overcome gender based violence requires the participation of the entire society and efforts at all levels from the personal to the global Gender based violence includes a wide range of forms including physical emotional sexual and economic violence as well as threats and controlling behavior It can manifest itself in various areas of life including the family environment social relationships work environment etc In our world where we strive for equality and justice the topic of gender based violence remains one of the most important and relevant Gender based violence is not only a physical problem but also a complex socio cultural phenomenon that covers various aspects of human life In our book we will look at this problem in all its manifestations and aspects exploring the various types of violence its causes and consequences as well as ways to overcome and prevent it In the first part we dive into the world of types of gender based violence revealing its multifaceted nature from physical violence to emotional psychological and economic We will look at each type separately analyzing its causes mechanisms of action and consequences for victims In Part 2 we delve deeper into the drivers and causes of gender based violence exploring the role of cultural stereotypes social expectations power and control We will conduct research into the personal and psychological factors that contribute to the emergence and maintenance of gender based violence in modern society The third part of our book is dedicated to support for victims of gender based violence We cover primary care safety mental health legal and social support offering readers practical advice and resources to support themselves and those around them In part four we will turn to preventing and combating gender based violence discussing the role of education programs and campaigns working with perpetrators and community engagement in solving this problem The final part of our book will review the main ideas proposed in it and call readers to action We hope that our work will become not only a source of knowledge but also a source of inspiration for those who strive to create a world free of gender based violence We invite you on a journey through the complex paths of gender based violence where together we will try to understand its nature consequences and ways to overcome it COVID-19 Pandemic: Mental health, life habit changes and social phenomena Daria Smirnova,Konstantinos N.
