1850-1924 was born in Pennsylvania and later set up his ministry there. He wrote extensively and popularly on a wide range of Biblical and theological matters. Bonhoeffer Petra Brown, 2019-01-04 Theologian, Conspirator, Martyr. Saint Dietrich Bonhoeffer was killed in the waning days of World War II, having been implicated in the July 20th assassination attempt on Hitler. Since his death, Bonhoeffer's life and writings have inspired contradictory responses. He is often seen as a model for Christian pacifist resistance and more recently for violent direct political action. Bonhoeffer's name has been invoked by violent anti-abortion protestors as well as political leaders calling for support on a war on terror in the aftermath of 9/11. Petra Brown critically analyses Bonhoeffer's writing preceding and during his conspiracy involvement, particularly his recurring concept of the extraordinary. Brown examines this idea in light of the state of exception, a concept coined by the one-time Nazi jurist and political theorist Carl Schmitt. She also draws on the existentialist philosopher Søren Kierkegaard to consider what happens when discipleship is understood as obedience to a divine command. This book aims to complicate an unreflective admiration of Bonhoeffer's decision for conspiracy and draws attention to the potentially dangerous implications of his emerging political theology. Asters and Golden-rod George Lansing Taylor, 1904 The Primitive Expounder, 1845
