Death And Dying Understanding And Care:

Death and Dying Barbara A. Backer, Natalie Hannon, Noreen A. Russell, 1994 It is important to recognize and accept the uniqueness of each individual's response to loss dying and death This excellent second edition conveys the message that understanding and care should be valued as highly as efficiency and cost effectiveness in today's high tech medical system Death and Dying Understanding and Care identifies patterns of response to dying and death in American society it discusses problems associated with the cessation of life and it examines the structure and process of interaction among the terminally ill their families and helping professionals THIS TITLE IS DESIGNATED AS A KIP KEEP IN PRINT EDITION AS OF 1 6 00 AND WILL BE REPRINTED BASED ON CUSTOMER NEED DEMAND Understanding Dying, Death, and Bereavement Michael R. Leming, George E. Dickinson, 2007 Using a social psychological approach this edition remains solidly grounded in theory and research but places greater emphasis on the individual and coping with death and dying These two well known authors and researchers integrate stimulating personal accounts throughout the text and apply concepts to specific examples that deal with cross cultural perspectives and the practical matters of death and dying Dealing with Death Michael Green, Jennifer Green, 2006-05-25 Dealing with Death is a comprehensive and authoritative source of information for professionals on the procedures laws and cultural customs that should be observed when someone dies This completely updated and expanded second edition takes into account changes in UK law and the impact of the Harold Shipman and Alder Hey enquiries Religious Understandings of a Good Death in Hospice Palliative Care Harold Coward, Kelli I. Stajduhar, 2012-06-13 Winner of the 2012 AJN American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year Award in the Hospice and Palliative Care category In the 1960s English physician and committed Christian Cicely Saunders introduced a new way of treating the terminally ill that she called hospice care Emphasizing a holistic and compassionate approach her model led to the rapid growth of a worldwide hospice movement Aspects of the early hospice model that stressed attention to the religious dimensions of death and dying while still recognized and practiced have developed outside the purview of academic inquiry and consideration Meanwhile global migration and multicultural diversification in the West have dramatically altered the profile of contemporary hospice care In response to these developments this volume is the first to critically explore how religious understandings of death are manifested and experienced in palliative care settings Contributors discuss how a good death is conceived within the major religious traditions of Christianity Islam Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Chinese religion and Aboriginal spirituality A variety of real world examples are presented in case studies of a Buddhist hospice center in Thailand Ugandan approaches to dying with HIV AIDS Punjabi extended family hospice care and pediatric palliative care The work sheds new light on the significance of religious belief and practice at the end of life at the many forms religious understanding can take and at the spiritual pain that so often accompanies the physical pain of the dying person
