Decolonization Since 1945 The Collapse Of European Overseas Empires Studies In Contemporary History:

Decolonization Since 1945 John Springhall, 2001 One of the most significant changes of the post world has been the decline and final dismemberment of European colonial empires in Africa Asia the Middle East the Pacific and the Caribbean In 1939 roughly a third of the world's entire population lived under colonial or imperial rule 60 years later less than 0.1% of the global population lives in dependent territories This book examines the various mechanisms of European departure around the world with each major colony receiving separate extensive and consecutive treatment rather than being subject to chronological or thematic subdivision The Rise and Fall of the Soviet Empire Raymond Pearson, 2002-07-04 The Rise and Fall of the Soviet Empire describes and explains the creation maintenance and eventual demise of the Soviet regime across post 1945 Eastern Europe Balancing internal factors such as resilient nationalism against external factors such as America's acceleration of the arms race Raymond Pearson sets the so called Soviet Empire within the broader context of global imperialism and decolonisation Full coverage is also given to the dramatic episodes of Eastern Europe dissent and the chequered career of the ostensibly monolithic Soviet Empire This revised and updated second edition features an expanded final chapter on the Last Empire assessing not only its patent strengths and hidden weaknesses but also its much publicised vices and rarely acknowledged virtues New documentation that has only become available in the last five years has been incorporated to provide a fuller retrospective historical judgement on the Soviet regime across Eastern Europe

Encyclopedia of United States National Security Richard J. Samuels, 2006 Covers the origin development and results of all major national security policies over the last seven decades A thoroughly interdisciplinary work the encyclopedia views national security from a historical economic political and technological perspective The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume IV Martin Shipway, 2016-12-05 The collection of essays in this volume offers an overview of scholarly approaches to the ways in which diverse actors representing the colonised or the colonising nations or indeed the international community reacted to colonialism during the lifetime of the modern colonial empires or in their aftermath The coverage is broad in terms of geographical scope and historical period with articles on the major colonial empires in Asia and Africa and the imperial centres of Paris London and Berlin from the conquests of the late nineteenth century to the period of decolonisation The selection also reflects recent academic trends by focusing on countries whose colonial past and experience of decolonisation have been studied and debated with particular intensity such as Algeria Kenya and India The volume draws on previously published articles and book chapters by leading international scholars writing in or translated into English and includes a critical introduction which situates each essay in relation to recent debates in this dynamic and expanding field of study

American Crusade David J. Endres, 2010-08-04 Perhaps no era in Christian history since the time of the apostles presented a greater challenge to the spread of faith than the twentieth century The First World War in particular resulted in nearly disastrous losses for the world mission movement Christian countries were engaged in fratricidal conflict missionaries were forced to return to their homelands and traditional sources of mission funding dried up In response to the missions crisis American Catholic youth devoted themselves to a program of prayer study and sacrifice the Catholic Students Mission Crusade Beginning with less than fifty members the movement grew to over one million youth and worked to foster support for missionaries in the field promote missionary vocations and educate youth about the needs of the church throughout the world In the course of their crusade the movement s youth were exposed the complexities and challenges of diverse religious political and cultural worlds including illiteracy in rural America communism in China and Eastern Europe and famine and disease in sub Saharan Africa In light of this experience as well as the Second Vatican Council s reformulation of the Catholic Church s approach to missions by the late 1960s the movement began to question its goal of converting the world leading to the Crusade s crisis of faith and eventually to its disbanding By exploring the fascinating story of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade this study offers new insights into the growth of the church amidst contemporary obstacles and historically non Christian cultures providing a bridge to understanding the current challenges to Christian globalization Human Rights, Development and Decolonization D. Maul, 2012-01-27 An innovative diplomatic and intellectual history of decolonization post colonial nation building and international human rights and development discourses this study of the role of the ILO during 1940 70 opens up new perspectives on the significance of international organisations as actors in the history of the 20th century The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories John

Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire

2001 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2011-08-02 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors

Migration and the Crisis of Democracy in Contemporary Europe Christoph M. Michael, 2021-01-12 This innovative and thought provoking study puts forth a compelling analysis of the constitutive nexus at the heart of the European refugee conundrum It maps and historically contextualises some of the distinctive challenges that pervasive ethnic and cultural pluralism present to real politics as on the level of political theorizing By systematically integrating hitherto insufficiently linked research perspectives in a novel way it lays open a number of paradoxical constellations and regressive tendencies in contemporary European democracy It thereby redirects attention to the ways in which liberal thought and liberal democratic institutions shape interact with and may even provide justification for illiberal and exclusionary practices This book thus makes an important contribution to the analysis of post migrant realities in Europe and the ways in which they are defined by imperial legacies punitive migration regimes the culturalization of mainstream politics and the discursive construction of a European Other

Slavery, Indenture and the Law Nandini Boodia-Canoo, 2023-01-31 This book addresses historical issues of colonialism and race which influenced the formation of multicultural society in Mauritius During the 19th century Mauritius was Britain's prime sugar producing colony yet unlike the West Indies its history has remained significantly under researched The modern demographic of multi ethnic Mauritius is unusual as in the absence of an indigenous people descendants of colonists slaves and indentured labourers constitute the majority of the island's population today Thus it may be said that the Mauritian nation was assembled during the period in question This work draws on an in depth examination of the two labour systems through which the island came to be populated slavery and indenture In studying the relevant laws four legal events of historical importance within the context of these two labour systems are identified the abolition of the slave trade the abolition of slavery private indentured labour migration and state regulated indenture This book is notable in that it presents a legal analysis of core historical events thus straddling the line between two disciplines and covers both slavery and indentured labour in Mauritian history Mauritius as an originally uninhabited island presents a rare case study for inquiries into colonial legacies multiculturalism and race consciousness The book will be a valuable resource to scholars worldwide in the fields of slavery indenture and the legal apparatus of forced labour The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,2001 The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies Graham Huggan,2013-09-12 The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies provides a comprehensive overview of the latest scholarship in postcolonial studies while also considering possible future developments in the field Original chapters written by a worldwide team of contributors are organised into five cross referenced sections The Imperial Past The Colonial Present Theory and Practice Across the Disciplines and Across the World The chapters offer both country specific and comparative approaches to current issues offering a wide range of new and interesting perspectives The Handbook reflects the increasingly multidisciplinary nature of postcolonial studies and reiterates its continuing relevance to the study of both the colonial past in its multiple manifestations and the contemporary globalized world Taken together these essays the dialogues they pursue and the editorial comments that surround them constitute nothing less than a blueprint for the future of a much contested but intellectually vibrant and politically engaged field Bibliographie Internationale de Science Politique ,2002-12 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies,2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all Making a World after Empire Christopher J. Lee,2010-06-15 In April 1955 twenty nine countries from Africa Asia and the Middle East came together for a diplomatic conference in Bandung Indonesia intending to define the direction of the postcolonial world Representing approximately two thirds of the world s population the Bandung conference occurred during a key moment of transition in the mid twentieth century amid the global wave of decolonization that took place after the Second World War and the nascent establishment of a new cold war world order in its wake Participants such as Jawaharlal Nehru of India Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt Zhou Enlai of China and Ahmed Sukarno of Indonesia seized this occasion to attempt the creation of a political alternative to the dual threats of Western neocolonialism and the cold war interventionism of the United States and the Soviet Union The essays in this volume explore the diverse repercussions of this event tracing the diplomatic intellectual and sociocultural histories that have emanated from it Making a World after Empire consequently addresses the complex intersection of postcolonial history and cold war history and speaks to contemporary discussions of Afro Asianism empire and decolonization thus reestablishing the conference s importance in twentieth century global history Contributors Michael Adas Laura Bier James R Brennan G Thomas Burgess Antoinette Burton Dipesh Chakrabarty Julian Go Christopher J Lee Jamie Monson Jeremy Prestholdt Denis M Tull History of Humanity UNESCO,2008-12-31 This is the seventh and final volume in this comprehensive guide to the history of world cultures throughout historical times

At Home with the Empire Catherine Hall,Sonya O. Rose,2006-12-21 This pioneering 2006 volume addresses the question of how Britain s empire was lived through everyday practices in church and chapel by readers at home as embodied in sexualities or forms of citizenship as narrated in histories from the eighteenth century to the present Leading historians explore the imperial experience and legacy for those located physically or imaginatively at home from the impact of empire on constructions of womanhood masculinity and class to its influence in shaping literature sexuality visual culture consumption and history writing They assess how people thought imperially not in the sense of political affiliations for or against empire but simply assuming it was there part of the given world that had made them who they were They also show how empire became a contentious focus of attention at certain moments and in particular ways This will be essential reading for scholars and students of modern Britain and its empire

Institutions and Social Mobilization Ang Ming Chee,2014-12-30 This book marks a major contribution since the work of Tan Liok Eee 1997 on the Dongjiaozong movement in Malaysia The author s familiarity with both popular and academic writings in Mandarin has yielded rare first hand and often bottom up views on the Dongjiaozong movement from actors directly involved in the movement As a result readers get a better understanding of the personalities leadership dynamics creative strategies of control and resistance within this social movement as well as its ability to exploit political vulnerabilities and interpersonal relationships to cajole negotiate and arm twist the state in its bid to defend Chinese education in Malaysia This book will be of interest to practitioners in the fields of political science and Malaysian studies in general and the study of state society relations and social movements in non liberal democratic contexts in particular Associate Professor Goh Beng Lan Department of Southeast Asian Studies National University of Singapore Ang Ming Chee s insightful examination of the decades long Chinese education movement in Malaysia is a powerful example of scholarship exemplifying deep passion and rigorous analysis This important study will be a major reference for those interested in Chinese politics in Malaysia and the social resistance movements under non democratic conditions for years to come Associate Professor Jamie S Davidson Department of Political Science National University of Singapore A Companion to International History 1900 - 2001 Gordon Martel, 2010-03-29 A comprehensive overview of the most important international events movements and controversies of the 20th century Written by distinguished scholars each an authority in their field Explores influential underlying themes such as imperialism nationalism internationalism technological developments and changes in diplomatic methods Addresses a broad range of topics including diplomacy of wartime and peacemaking the cold war era and the new world order the end of European empires the rise of nationalism in the Third World globalization and terrorism Chronological organization makes the volume easily accessible Includes useful guides for further reading and research The Battle for Asia Mark T. Berger, 2004-03-01 Asia has long been an ideological battleground between capitalism and communism between nationalism and Westernisation and between the nation state and globalization This book is a history of the Asian region from 1945 to the present day which delineates the various ideological battles over Asia s development Subjects covered include theories of development decolonization US political and economic intervention the effects of communism the end of the Cold War the rise of neo liberalism Asia after the crisis Asia in the era of globalisation Broad in sweep and rich in theory and empirical detail this is an essential account of the growth of Asian miracle and its turbulent position in the global economy of the twenty first century
