Formation In Faith The Congregational Ministry Of Making Disciples:

Formation in Faith Sondra Higgins Matthaei, 2008-01-01 The ministry of congregations is to make disciples of Jesus Christ Behind that simple and seemingly self evident statement lies a problematic reality however While congregations know that disciple making is at the heart of their identity they often have trouble understanding how to go about it Apart from such traditional Christian education ministries as Sunday school too little formal thinking or planning goes into the task of forming Christians in the faith In this book Sondra Matthaei casts a vision in which congregations open up their life of faith to others as an invitation to connect the universal longing for authentic relationships and deeper meaning with the church s practice of faithful discipleship As folks enter the church s communion of grace Matthaei challenges church leaders to utilize the gifts of every member and lays out a plan to help congregations grow in faith and communion with God and creation including the context and goal of such ministry deciding what to teach and who shall teach and attendant relationships structures and practices

Understanding Faith Formation Mark A. Maddix, Jonathan H. Kim, James Riley Jr. Estep, 2020-10-27 Three leading Christian educators offer a survey of faith formation from various perspectives biblical theological pastoral practical and global They present a biblical theology of faith formation for individual and congregational life and show how faith can be formed through the life and mission of the local church through practices such as communal worship Bible study and mission They also explore the faces of faith formation in multicultural and global contexts The book includes practical exercises for those beginning in ministry and reflection questions

Proleptic Pedagogy Sondra H. Matthaei, Nancy R. Howell, 2014-06-17 Could we have imagined how much theological education would change in the new millennium Shifting needs of students classrooms and churches have demanded constant revisions of the curriculum course design classroom technology and pedagogical strategies Saint Paul School of Theology felt the tide of change within our own walls and designed a project called Proleptic Pedagogy to address three distinct pedagogical challenges for the future of theological education First instead of fitting new technologies into old pedagogies how are teaching and learning transformed by shifting needs of students who are digital natives digital immigrants or distance learners Second instead of reactive strategies what pedagogy proactively eliminates accommodations because courses are designed with flexibility and openness to diverse learning styles disabilities and needs Third instead of engaging student diversity with the tools of the 1960s what new teaching and learning strategies anticipate future student racial and ethnic demographics and interracial educational experiences This volume of essays narrates our classroom stories teases out pedagogical issues examines pedagogical literature reflects on theology of pedagogy and constructs pedagogical proposals with an open invitation for other theological educators to join our conversation about the future of theological education

Loving God, Loving Neighbor Peggy Kendall; Claire Smith; Tim Ke, 2008-04-01 In almost every congregation there is a searching youth who is somehow different from the rest one who thinks more deeply asks more questions and wants to make a difference in the world This young person may be seen as a loner an upstart or someone who does not fit Youth workers may not know what to do with these inquisitive youth and a youth program that meets the congregation's expectations probably won't connect with the needs and interests of searching youth Eventually searching youth turn into searching adults who continue to stir things up and enrich the life of our congregations with their questions insights witness and service These young people have the capacity and ability to provide significant leadership in our congregations now and in the future Because of their unique gifts we are offering this book as a resource for pastors teachers and youth leaders who work with them In this book faculty members students and recent graduates of Saint Paul School of Theology look through the eyes of their academic disciplines and ministry experience to explore the foundations for ministry with searching youth and to offer designs for your ministry

Practicing Christian Education Mark A. Maddix, James Riley Jr. Estep, 2017-07-18 This accessible introduction to the broad scope of Christian education focuses on its practice in the local church Two leading experts argue that Christian education encompasses all of the intentional practices of the local church including worship mission sacraments and teaching They explore Christian education not only as a field of study but as a vital congregational ministry showing how congregations can engage in discipleship and formation for spiritual growth The book features exercises and other pedagogical devices and includes reflection questions and suggestions for further reading

Renewing Communication Colleen R. Derr, 2020-02-04

How can we as Christian leaders make the most of our communication to help others become more like Christ Colleen Derr draws on decades of experience in education and church ministry to offer a holistic strategy for transformational communication showing that communication powered by the Spirit needn't be limited to the pulpit or classroom but can include everyday interactions and relationships

Just Us or Justice? Dr. F. Douglas Powe JR., 2009-06-01 Wesleyan

theology and African American theology have both become fixtures on the theological landscape in recent years While developing along parallel tracks both perspectives make claims concerning justice issues such as racism and sexism Both however perceive justice from a particular vantage that focuses on just us just our community Hence African American theology has not seriously studied John Wesley's stance against slavery or his work with the disenfranchised And Wesleyan theologians have largely ignored the insights of African American theology especially in regard to certain injustices To get beyond the just us mentality the author lays the foundation for a Pan Methodist theology which will draw from the strengths of African American and Wesley theologies

Journey to Jesus Kent Jorgen Burreson, Rhoda Grever Schuler, 2025-06-03

When many Christian congregations are asking How can we draw new members into our midst the authors reframe the question How can congregations make new disciples and deepen the faith of long time Christians Rediscovery of the early church catechumenate provides a means to form new disciples in today's culture Inspiring case studies of four congregations emphasize the contextual flexibility of adult faith formation Interviews with catechumenal leaders and participants in adult faith formation reveal how a catechumenate that is central to congregational life can energize and orient the people of God toward the mission of God Opening windows into congregational life especially at worship those who had journeyed through the adult faith formation process describe their experiences and the profound changes that took place in them Adult faith formation is a journey not a program of belonging believing and behaving that draws people into Christ's orbit for life As one participant said For the first time I understood what it meant to be a Christian Through the adult catechumenate she heard the voice of Christ calling her to new life and a rich baptismal identity Pentecostalism and Christian Unity, Volume 2 Wolfgang Vondey, 2013-03-28 This book is the follow-up volume to Pentecostalism and Christian Unity: Ecumenical Documents and Critical Assessments. The first volume documented the history and ecumenical engagement of Pentecostals during the twentieth century. This new collection traces the ecumenical developments, narratives and conversations during the first decade of the twenty-first century. The ecumenical community and Pentecostals have consistently lamented the absence of a comprehensive gathering of resources for both groups. This particular volume provides two significant assets in this regard: 1) documentation of new and emerging conversations that have not yet produced official reports and 2) official reports from continuing conversations. The book begins with an overview of a century of Pentecostal participation in Christian unity. Part One contains ecumenical narratives on the Joint Consultative Group of Pentecostals and the World Council of Churches, Lutherans and Pentecostals, the Global Christian Forum and Christian Churches Together in the USA. Part Two contains the extensive reports from the official dialogue of Pentecostals with the Roman Catholic Church, the World Alliance of Reformed Churches and the Oneness Trinitarian Pentecostal dialogue. This collection presents an invaluable resource for teachers.
