You speak God's truth when you counsel But do you also communicate His grace The Christian counselor or pastor helps people process their pain Too often a client leaves the counselor's office with feelings of shame They understand what they did wrong But they've missed the grace of God that makes things right again Christian counselors Richard Fowler and Natalie Ford offer a model that blends the truths of Scripture the science of psychology and the hope of the gospel It includes New grace based counseling model Detailed application of the model with case studies Toolbox with surveys assessments and counseling helps A Christian counseling model can't just be about admonishment That approach only leads to shame and human efforts that are doomed to fail But when the gospel is brought to bear in the counseling relationship the counselor becomes an instrument of grace in the hands of a faithful God New Dictionary of Christian Ethics & Pastoral Theology David J.

perspective on helping others Negotiating a Presence-Centred Christian Counselling Simon Shui-Man Kwan, 2016-04-26

How Christian is Christian counselling In what ways should one's counselling practice be conducted in order to fulfil one's role as a Christian counsellor Is there a counselling practice that truly penetrates into the secular approaches while remaining faithful to the Christian traditions of healing What are the theological roots of secular counselling How may secular counselling both reinforce and challenge the Christian faith In answering these questions this book engages readers to navigate between two frames of reference one Eastern secular social scientific and modern the other Western Christian theological and traditional At levels of both theory and practice this book undertakes to integrate synthesize hybridize revise dichotomize and antagonize the two It proposes a revised presence centred counselling approach which may serve as a perspective that helps us to see things in more depth as we shuttle back and forth between the two frames This book thus negotiates a revised presence centred form of counselling that is theologically grounded social scientifically informed and cross culturally sensitive As the author's counselling practice proceeds mainly in societies where Chinese is the majority the cross cultural examinations and proposals offered in this book have been bred in a space where Chinese culture meets the Christian Protestantism in particular West This book is an outgrowth of the author's experience teaching Christian counselling courses for 17 years and his 30 year clinical practice experience in places where East meets West namely Hong Kong and South China Guangdong Province
