Epstein, 2014-03-27 In Belgium's Dilemma The Formation of Belgian Defense Policy 1932 1940 Jonathan Andrew Epstein presents for the first time in English a detailed examination of the formation of Belgian defense policy in the eight years leading up to the crucial World War II Blitzkrieg campaign in Western Europe Belgium's decision to renounce military ties with France in 1936 has been widely criticized as a fatal mistake but it was in fact a reasonable response to Belgium's situation and was not a significant factor in the Allied defeat Drawing on Belgian documents Jonathan Andrew Epstein looks at the leaders and issues that shaped the Belgian army of 1940 and demonstrates that while mistakes were made most of the decisions were sound Belgium Jan Albert Goris, Marnix Gijzen, 1946 Historical Dictionary of Belgium Robert Stallaerts, 1999 Highlights the most significant persons parties and organizations describes the political and social institutions and touches on Belgian economy and culture Nationalism in Belgium Kas Deprez, Louis Vos, 2016-07-27 This is a book about shifting national identities in Belgium It is an attempt to show how these identities emerged and evolved It aims at explaining why the Belgian identity which in 1830 was so strong that it could create a new nation state has become so weak that today it has to accept a mere overarching role above and in competition with the new national loyalties More and more people wonder whether this

Modern Europe delves deep into the construction of different size based hierarchies in Europe and explores the way Europeans have thought about their own state's size and that of their continental neighbours since the early 19th century By positing that ideas about size are intimately connected with both basic discourses about a state's identity and policy discourses about the range of options most appropriate to that state this multi contributor volume presents a novel way of thinking about what makes one state in the eyes of both its own inhabitants and those of others different from others and what effects these perceived differences have had and continue to have on domestic European and global politics Bringing together an international team of historians and political scientists this nuanced and sophisticated study examines the connections between shifting ideas about a state's relative size competing notions of national interest and mission and international policy in modern Europe and beyond
