De Man Met De Orchidee:

Teysmannia ,1907 The Human, the Orchid, and the Octopus Susan Schiefelbein,Jacques Cousteau,2010-08-10

The beloved explorer Jacques Cousteau witnessed firsthand the complexity and beauty of life on earth and undersea and watched the toll taken by human activity in the twentieth century In this magnificent last book now available for the first time in the United States Cousteau describes his deeply informed philosophy about protecting our world for future generations Weaving gripping stories of his adventures throughout he and coauthor Susan Schiefelbein address the risks we take with human health the overfishing and sacking of the world s oceans the hazards of nuclear proliferation and the environmental responsibility of scientists politicians and people of faith This prescient clear sighted book is a remarkable testament to the life and work of one of our greatest modern adventurers Orchid Biology VIII T. Kull,J. Arditti,2002-04-30 Note Not long after publication of Orchid Biology Reviews and Perspectives OB volume VII my co editor Dr Alec M Pridgeon informed me that the pressure of other duties especially the editing of Genera Orchidacearum GO will make it impossible for him to continue as co editor and eventually editor ofthe series Alec is an excellent orchid scientist and editor I was sorry to that he had to leave OB but glad that GO will be in his able hands The first volume of GO attests to his considerable abilities and I wish him much success in the future Editors of orchid publications are not the most common of species to use a botanical analogy and finding a replacement for Alec was not easy However I was fortunate that Dr Tiiu Kull agreed to become my co editor and eventually take over the series As is obvious from the Contributors section Dr Kull has extensive experience as both writer and editor My interactions with her while editing this volume have convinced me she is an excellent choice Scientifically she brings to OB an appreciation and understanding of northern terrestrial orchids a group which has not received as much attention as it deserves Another addition to OB is Dr Tim Wing Yam who agreed to become an associate editor Tim who holds a position at the Singapore Botanic Gardens will provide expertise on seed germination hybridization tissue culture species and conservation
