Roxbury Redemption Dr. Earle Williams, 2012-04-18 This is the story of a life well lived but with difficulties along the way Dr Williams tells how he overcame challenges and found a meaningful and fulfilling life with perseverance and the grace of God With the aid of three great religions Catholic Baptist and the Nation of Islam he was placed on a trajectory of success As a child his mother was told he was mentally retarded After starting high school at the age of 12 and the only Black in all of his classes for four years he was told any college that accepts you is hard up His father told him he was too stupid to finish high school and that he should quit and get a job Then as a 21 year old recently discharged Air Force veteran he discovered his mother had been killed by a hit and run white male driver Enraged he embarked on a life of crime for two years until arrested and sentenced to Walpole Maximum Security Penitentiary in Massachusetts When released he enrolled in college and 15 years later received his doctorate degree in Clinical Psychology In the tradition of when you get to where you're going don't forget where you've been he tells the story how he and perhaps others released from prison can turn their lives around Now as a Forensic Clinical Psychologist in private practice and assistant professor at Hampton University he tells you there's plenty of room at the top it's just those darn bottoms that are so crowded The Archaeology of Violence Sarah Ralph, 2013-01-17 The Archaeology of Violence is an interdisciplinary consideration of the role of violence in social cultural and sociopolitical contexts The volume draws on the work of archaeologists anthropologists classicists and art historians all of whom have an interest in understanding the role of violence in their respective specialist fields in the Mediterranean and

Europe The focus is on three themes contexts of violence politics and identities of violence and sanctified violence In contrast to many past studies of violence often defined by their subject specialism or by a specific temporal or geographic focus this book draws on a wide range of both temporal and spatial examples and offers new perspectives on the study of violence and its role in social and political change Rather than simply equating violence with warfare as has been done in many archaeological cases the volume contends that the focus on warfare has been to the detriment of our understanding of other forms of non warfare violence and has the potential to affect the ways in which violence is recognized and discussed by scholars and ultimately has repercussions for understanding its role in society Cultural Sociology of Mental Illness
