The Forest Stewart Edward White, 2020-03-28 Some time in February when the snow and sleet have shut out from the wearied mind even the memory of spring the man of the woods generally receives his first inspiration He may catch it from some companion s chance remark a glance at the map a vague recollection of a dim past conversation or it may flash on him from the mere pronouncement of a name The first faint thrill of discovery leaves him cool but gradually with the increasing enthusiasm of cogitation the idea gains body until finally it has grown to plan fit for discussion
