Formation Of The Moral Self Studies In Practical Theology:

Formation of the Moral Self J. A. van der Ven, 1998 In the course of his study in practical theology Dutch scholar Johannes A van der Ven provides a foundational understanding of the process of moral development and the structures of education that help initiate it

Hermeneutics and Empirical Research in Practical Theology Chris Hermans, Mary Moore, 2021-09-20 There is a growing consensus among scholars in different countries about the object of practical theology Hans van der Ven has contributed much to this consensus through his writings on the foundations of practical theology the empirical paradigm within practical theology and specific subdisciplines within practical theology especially religious education moral education church development and ministry At the center of this growing consensus is an understanding of the independent hermeneutical role of religious experiences and practices of people in the process of theological theory building If contemporary religious experiences and practices have a critical role with regard to religious tradition and the ministry of this tradition then practical theology cannot just be a form of applied theology The contributors of this volume focus on this hermeneutical core foundations of practical theology and on empirical research as a research method within practical theology in the work of Van der Ven

Towards a Contextual Transformational Practical Theology for Leadership Education in South Africa Gordon E. Dames, 2016 Towards a contextual transformational practical theology for leadership education in South Africa is a courageous effort by a prominent South African practical theologian to develop a framework for the theory and practice of leadership education in an African context Taking the harsh realities of South Africa as point of departure the author demonstrates how an indigenous South African practical theology can be developed through a critical interaction between Western and African ideas Prof Jaco S Dreyer Professor of Practical Theology University of South Africa

Normativity And Empirical Research In Theology Johannes Antonius van der Ven, Michael Scherer-Rath, 2004 In this publication researchers and academics from South Africa Great Britain Switzerland Germany and the Netherlands provide theoretical explanations and examples of empirical research with regard to the fundamental question of the role of theological normativity in empirical research in theological fields

God Reinvented? J. A. van der Ven, 1998 Statistics speak of a decline of faith in God Sometimes however a renaissance seems to take place Are we witnessing the re creation of God images or the re discovery of God as the title of this book indicates

Spiritual Care in a Hospital Setting Wim Smeets, 2006-10-01 This book reports on a theoretical and empirical study of spiritual care as a profession in health care particularly from the angle of quality care Theoretically the central issues in spiritual care are analysed quality care medicalisation and contingency as its limit the function of worldviews in health care personal identity legitimacy and position in health care goals and tasks of the profession Specific attention is spent to the determinants of the goals in the interaction with patients Empirically the attitudes of Dutch spiritual caregivers towards these issues are investigated The book provides insight into the professional discipline spiritual care and discusses some challenges for the future the intrinsic meaning of the plurality of worldviews within spiritual care the institutional aspects of this spiritual care and the educational implications of spiritual care as a professional discipline The book is particular useful for spiritual caregivers in their reflection on their practice and for education of future spiritual caregivers Christianity and Human Rights Frederick M.

Shepherd,2009-07-15 In Christianity and Human Rights Christians and the Struggle for Global Justice Frederick M Shepherd has collected essays by scholars and activists who in a wide variety of ways confront the issue of Christianity s role in the burgeoning movement for human rights The volume s contributors provide diverse perspectives on the theology behind the idea of human rights the debate over the its meaning and the evolution of the struggle for human rights A wide variety of disciplinary perspectives are represented from economics political science and law to history philosophy and theology The essays also represent a broad political spectrum including specific accounts from activists participating in the struggle for human rights Separate chapters focus on cases from Europe Africa Latin America and Asia Christianity and Human Rights begins and ends with attempts to synthesize current theory and practice acknowledging both Christianity s great success and its failures in defending basic human rights around the globe Identity and Religion Ad Borsboom,F. P. M. Jaspers,2003

Paul Ricoeur and Contemporary Moral Thought William Schweiker,John Wall,David Hall,2020-10-28 This book explores and proposes new avenues for contemporary moral thought It defines and assesses the significance of the writings of French philosopher Paul Ricoeur for ethics The book also explores what matters most to persons and how best to sustain just communities Human Rights or Religious Rules? Johannes A. van der Ven,2010-03-08 The relation between religion and human rights is a contested one as they appear to compete with one another Religion is often considered to represent a tradition of heteronomy and subordination in premodern times Human rights emerged from early modern and modern times and stand for principles like human dignity autonomy equality The first question in this book is how to define religion its meaning functions and structures and how to study it The second question is how to understand religion from its relation with human rights in such a way that justice is done to both religion and human rights These questions are dealt with using a historical and systematic approach The third question is what the impact of religion might be on attitudes towards human rights i e human rights culture For an answer empirical research is reported among about 1000 students Christians Muslims and nonreligious at the end of secondary and the beginning of tertiary education in the Netherlands Book Review Digest

,1910 Is there a God of Human Rights? Johannes A. van der Ven,Jaco Dreyer,Hendrik Pieterse,2005-04-01 This volume deals with historical systematic and empirical questions with regard to the complex relationship between human rights and religion It focuses on the place and function of human rights in democracies in modern society Moreover it elaborates on the problems which are implied in the complex relationship between human rights and religion from the beginning Lastly it investigates the positive negative and ambivalent empirical effects of religious attitudes on human rights attitudes among some youth in South Africa Narratives and Numbers: Empirical Studies of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity Mark J. Cartledge, 2017-06-06 In Narratives and Numbers Empirical Studies of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity Mark J Cartledge provides a rich set of essays on key themes in Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity Using empirical research methods drawn from the social sciences he interrogates his originally gathered data by means of theology and sociology These studies address such issues as glossolalia prophecy spirituality gender and the family the doctrine of the Trinity socialization altruism and the practice of healing Collectively they provide original insight into one of the most vibrant forms of Christianity today Additionally these studies model how empirical research in religion can be brought into conversation with theological discourse The findings of this research can be used by scholars and students from different perspectives and disciplinary contexts

Religion Inside and Outside Traditional Institutions International Society for Empirical Research in Theology. Conference, 2007 Religion inside and outside Traditional Institutions combines conceptual reflection methodological proposals and research results that help to understand contemporary religious praxis These contributions to empirical theology thereby adopt a perspective which includes religious praxis outside traditional institutions

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 The Human Image of God Hans-Georg Ziebertz, Friedrich Schweitzer, Hermann Häring, Don Browning, 2021-10-01 A new wave of religious energy is sweeping through the western nations Although God is disappearing from religious discourse in western culture both as a word and as a concept there is a definite undercurrent of religious ardour which is growing in strength It focuses all the more attention on the issue what or who is God in the modern era This is the question examined through systematic studies practical theology and empirical research that are presented here through anthropologically relevant theology Renowned international authors make it plain in this book the question of God is exciting again This book is published in honour of Johannes A van der Ven on the occasion of his 60th birthday

Interreligious Learning Carl Sterkens, 2021-10-01 The increasing plurality of religions and world views in western society has major implications for religious communication in both public and private settings This study is an important step in an exploration of the consequences of this religious plurality for religious education in primary education The chief concern of this study is the following question To what extent is a pedagogic model in which pupils are encouraged to participate in an interreligious dialogue adequate for coping with this religious plurality To address this question the author discusses the following research questions what are the cognitive the affective and the attitudinal effects of the interreligious model for religious education and can this model be legitimised These questions are considered in the context of a discussion of the meaning of religion and an elaboration of the aim of religious education within the context of a secularized and multicultural society

Wisdom's Wonder William P. Brown, 2014-03-11 Wisdom's Wonder offers a fresh reading of the Hebrew Bible's wisdom literature with a unique emphasis on wonder as the framework for understanding biblical wisdom William Brown argues that wonder effectively integrates biblical wisdom's emphasis on character formation and its outlook on creation breaking an impasse that has plagued recent wisdom studies Drawing on various disciplines from philosophy to neuroscience Brown discovers new distinctions and connections in Proverbs Job and Ecclesiastes Each book is studied in terms of its view of moral character and creation as well as in terms of the social or intellectual crisis each book identifies Most general treatments of the wisdom literature spend too much time on issues of genre poetry and social context at the neglect of discussing the intellectual and emotional power of the wisdom corpus Brown argues that the real power of the wisdom corpus lies in its capacity to evoke the reader's sense of wonder An extensive revision and expansion of Brown's Character in Crisis Eerdmans 1996 this book demonstrates that the wisdom books are much more than simply advice literature with wonder as the foundation for understanding Brown maintains that wisdom is a process with transformation of the self as the goal

Overture to Practical Theology Jeanne Stevenson-Moessner, 2016-11-10 In Overture to Practical Theology Jeanne Stevenson Moessner takes a new route to introduce theology students and others to the field of practical theology Although she is certainly aware of relatively recent efforts to show the academic credentials of practical theology through careful definition citing that of David Tracy analysis of components and linkages to other disciplines within and without the overall framework of theology she proceeds by means of a double analogy rather than abstract academic precision to illumine practical theology Actual case studies also helpfully illumine aspects of her work From the Foreword by James N Lapsley The book examines biblical foundations historical roots and current manifestations of social justice ministry Stevenson Moessner shows how practical theology addresses racism sexism violence anti-Semitism ecological imbalance and life at the margins of society the vexing issues of today's ministry

Religion and Conflict Attribution Francis-Vincent Anthony, Chris Hermans, Carl J.A. Sterkens, 2014-10-30 Religion can play a dual role with regard to conflict It can promote either violence or peace Religion and Conflict Attribution seeks to clarify the causes of religious conflict as perceived by Christian Muslim and Hindu college students in Tamil Nadu India These students in varying degrees attribute conflict to force driven causes namely to coercive power as a means of achieving the economic political or socio cultural goals of religious groups The study reveals how force driven religious conflict is influenced by prescriptive beliefs like religious practice and mystical experience and descriptive beliefs such as the interpretation of religious plurality and religiocentrism It also elaborates on the practical consequences of the salient findings for the educational process
